Farmers Have Appealed to Citizens to Help Save the Crop.

King Intervenes in Effort to Bring Labor War to an End.

Strikers Receiving Financial Aid From Men in Other Countries.

Stockholm, Aug. 9.—The opening of the second week of the labor troubles in Sweden shows no abatement of the conflict and the men already on strike continue to augment their forces by the addition of sympathizers in other trades. A general strike of railroad men is threatened for Aug. 11.

The farmers association today appealed to citizens of all classes to help them save the cereal crop, the harvesting of which is prevented by the strike of farm hands. The government has supplemented this appeal by offering pecuniary aid to persons assisting in the harvest.

Street cars are running on time in the capital and all lines to Gothenburg, where the strikers have been replaced by strike breakers.

King Intervenes.—The head of the business life of the country as a result of the general strike is so serious that King Gustav intervened in an effort to bring the strike to a close. His majesty has sent a message to the parties in conflict extending their hands to each other and advising them to settle their disputes peacefully.

I was told King Gustav's message had been received and that his majesty's intervention had been successful. The strikers of the various trades, directed by the Swedish Labor Union, have not yet responded to the king's appeal.

Mr. Creager is a new congressman from the Third district of Oklahoma. He served in the Spanish war under Gen. Miles in Porto Rico. He is a newspaper writer and is holding his first office, but it is not expected that he will follow the example of one of his congressional colleagues, who in a speech in congress pointed to the press galleries with the words, "all these swine up there."

BOYS OF '61 ARE IN UTAH

Grand Army of the Republic Opens Its Forty-First Encampment.

Sons of Veterans and Other Allied Organizations Also Meeting.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 9.—This was the first day of the forty-first national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic.

While canvas villages were springing up from the greenward of the parks and the boys of '61 were playing the game of war under a softened form of military rule, the veterans were fanned by cool mountain breezes and the summer sun was in retreat.

The railroads have poured their heavy passenger traffic into Salt Lake with very few mishaps, and these of a trivial character. The veterans and members of allied organizations are outnumbered by the tourists and sightseers. The arrivals yesterday were escorted to the hotel by the city police.

See Wizard of Waseatch.—The Wizard of Waseatch, the famous old prospector, will be the guest of honor at the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held at the Waseatch Hotel.

BIG LOTTERY HAS STARTED

Oregon Man Draws No. 1 in Contest for Land in Coeur d'Alene.

Applicants Stand One Chance in 333 of Winning Prize.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 9.—Although the crowds of landseekers were not as large as they had been during the last three weeks, when filling applications for registration on the Coeur d'Alene, Spokane and Flathead reservations, several thousand people eagerly awaited this morning the hour of 10 o'clock when the drawing for the Coeur d'Alene land began.

Each of the 105,000 persons applying for Coeur d'Alene lands has one chance in 333 of the 100,000 applicants for Spokane lands one in 400, and of the 57,000 for Flathead lands one in fifteen.

Many had remained after mailing their applications and others who went on to visit the exposition at Seattle had returned in the hope that they might be announced as among the fortunate few to draw prizes.

TON OF APPLICATIONS.—Fifty-three tons of applications, weighing according to the statement of Judge James W. Witten, 2,880 pounds, were produced at the drawing of these lands, twenty were for Coeur d'Alene lands, nineteen for Spokane lands and fourteen for Flathead.

Notwithstanding the large number of strangers in Coeur d'Alene Sunday the day passed quietly. All saloons were closed, and the streets were empty.

BOLIVIA BENT ON WAR OF CONQUEST

Diplomats Believe Boundary Dispute Is Mere Ruse of Politicians.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Is Bolivia seeking a pretense to bring on a war with Peru?

This question is being asked, and seriously, too, by South American diplomats who are watching every development in the situation in which Argentina, Bolivia and Peru are directly interested, and Chile and Brazil indirectly.

Some of the diplomats profess to think that the excitement in Bolivia over the Argentine award, which was favorable to Peru, is really a ruse to bring about an armed conflict with Peru, nominally to secure a more satisfactory adjustment of the boundary of the disputed tract, but actually to aim at territorial conquest.

Bolivia has no sea coast. A successful war with Peru might give her an outlet to the sea by the acquisition of Moquegua province, the southernmost in Peru, and adjoining the Chilean frontier.

Two candidates for the presidency of the Republic will be elected at the same time. The winner will be the one who has the most votes.

MURDERED AND BURIED

Girl Slain in New York Cemetery on Going to Decorate Grave.

Michigan Also Has Crime Mystery in Discovery of Woman's Body.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Anna Schumacher, 15 years old, was found murdered and buried in a cemetery this morning. She left home Saturday to decorate the grave of a relative. Since then the family and police had been searching for her.

The police allege that Miss Schumacher had been criminally assaulted. The dead girl, who had eight sisters and two brothers, lived with her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Schumacher, and unmarried sisters.

She took some plants and flowers to put on a grave on the family lot. That is the last time she was seen by her family until the finding of her body this morning.

When Miss Schumacher did not reach home by 7 p. m. her mother became alarmed and search was made for her, and one of the brothers-in-law and a sister drove down to the cemetery and made a hurried survey of the grounds, without avail. It was found that she had visited the cemetery, as the graves were newly decorated.

EIGHT INJURED WHEN TWO STREET CARS COLLIDE IN A FOG ON WEST THIRD STREET

DOES STUNTS WITH AN AEROPLANE

C. F. WILLARD.

Mr. Willard is a member of the New York Aeronautic club, and has been chosen by that body to operate the flying machine which the club recently purchased from Glenn H. Curtiss. He has made twelve successive flights of varying length. The picture shows him seated at the steering wheel of the aeroplane. The machine was badly damaged a few weeks ago by another amateur who tried to run it and who lost his self-control during the flight. Mr. Willard's work has attracted great attention, as he is the first amateur in America to get real results in the use of a heavier-than-air flying machine.

Peculiarities of the Prisoners Held at County Jail for Murder.

Barilla and Schreiber Are Cell Mates—Rossi a Model Prisoner.

Two proven and one alleged murderer make up the small colony of criminals of this type now held in the county jail.

"Poor old Frank Colom," as he was called by his jailers, is now at St. Louis, where he will remain until death puts an end to his imprisonment. He left just before Michael Rossi arrived.

Esquie Barilla has been declared guilty of the murder of Caspar Zimbar, committed some two months ago in a boarding house on West Michigan street. William Schreiber has been proven guilty of the murder of Frank Masson, a man of the range, and is awaiting the action of Judge Russell in awaiting trial on a charge of murdering Antonio de la Cruz, a man of the Northern Pacific road at Fifth avenue west.

Schreiber and Barilla are culprits. They occupy the same cell and while there is not little love between them and no sympathy whatever, they manage to get along fairly well together. Schreiber is quick and nervous. Barilla is slow and deliberate. The latter is used to jail life. Barilla is not. He feels like a wild animal caged in a jail. He is very nervous and nervous. Barilla is very demonstrative. When his friends appear he calls into their arms, weeps and kisses them. All this makes Schreiber very weary. Not in the least is he able to understand how others can be so "soft." He says Barilla is "crazy."

Barilla constantly talks of his sympathy toward Schreiber. "You're lucky," says Barilla, "he's away from the jail. Twenty years is a snap. Brace up and try to make a man out of it." Barilla is very demonstrative. When his friends appear he calls into their arms, weeps and kisses them. All this makes Schreiber very weary. Not in the least is he able to understand how others can be so "soft." He says Barilla is "crazy."

Schreiber rarely receives letters; his wife is not as constant in her visits as she was, and he is left alone for the most part to hear his trouble as he may, but he remains unmoved. During his trial his nerves were of steel. Not once did he show any visible sign of emotion. When he was declared guilty there was no change. He is a mystery to the jailers and the other prisoners, with whom he is not popular.

Michael Rossi has not been an inmate of the jail long enough for his peculiarities to become known. He is a model prisoner, does exactly as he is told, remains by himself the greater part of the time, and seems to resent the appearance of the other prisoners when they come near.

Frank Colom, who killed Luzzo Ravanovich near an old spring on the Miller-Trunk road, has been away from the jail of July to Stillwater, where he will spend the rest of his days. He was glad to go. He wanted a change. They used to call him "Old Frank" about the jail. He is said to have tuberculosis and the cough he suffered from played one of the important parts in his conviction.

DEATH DUE TO REMORSE. London Telegraph: A curious story comes from Seattle. On Sunday night the local executioner, Dick, his job being due to remorser. For several years he had not carried out any executions, but recently he had been moved to Cordova to inflict the final penalty on some criminals.

The impression made upon him was so painful that he was unable to face the ordeal when summoned to execute the last criminal condemned in Seattle, and the sentence will have to be carried out by the Madrid executioner.

Mrs. Droz was widely known among the older settlers of the city. She is survived by an adopted son, Louis Droz, at Tacoma, Wash., who was notified of her death today, besides three nephews and a niece. They are Henry, Fred and Abel Bolot and Miss Martha Bolot, all of Oneota.

Mrs. Droz owns considerable property at Oneota and during the past two years her nephew, Henry Bolot, has acted in the capacity of her guardian. Old-Time Resident Is Astonished at City's Rapid Growth.

Says Steel Plant Will Add 50,000 People to Population.

Albert N. Selp, an old-time resident of the city, but now of Washington, D. C., where he has lived for the last sixteen years, is in Duluth for a month's visit. Mr. Selp's son is with him.

Mr. Selp is one of the city's best friends, and firmly believes that one day the talk of the Pittsburgh of the West will be fully realized.

He owns a valuable property in the city. When asked for an interview by The Herald, Mr. Selp gave out the following statement:

"I have been asked to give some of my impressions of the progress made by Duluth in the three years since I was last here. Of course, my opinions are unimportant, and may be biased by reason of the interests I hold here; but I will refer briefly to such matters as strike me, after a very casual and by no means thorough inspection of the city."

"I came here under the belief that the damage by the storm, reported in the Eastern papers as at least $1,500,000, was great. I am glad to see it stated that $50,000,000 has been expended in the city since the last time I was here. This is a most gratifying fact in your development, and must always attract visitors, owing to its cheapness and effective service. Very little of the water that menaces the business district."

"Since I was here last you have had constructed the water power plant, and it has been in operation since June 1, 1909. This alone is a powerful factor in your development, and must always attract visitors, owing to its cheapness and effective service. Very little of the water that menaces the business district."

"I noticed also that you have added to your manufacturing facilities the carbide plant, furniture factory and other industries. MISSING MAN'S BODY IS FOUND

John Horn of Grand Forks Probably Threw Self Into River.

Grand Forks, N. D., Aug. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The body of John Horn, a local butcher, who has been missing from his home since last Friday morning, was found floating in the Red river this morning. The man probably committed suicide, although he left no explanation for such an act. The fact that he drank considerably is believed to be responsible for the action. The remains were so badly bloated as to be unrecognizable and identity was only established by the clothes and articles in the pockets. His watch had stopped at 3:41, just a half hour after he left home, presumably to go to work.

Richard Carl, "Pinched." Muskegon, Mich., Aug. 9.—Richard Carl, the actor, was arrested while speeding hilariously down the main street in his automobile. He was arrested with his chauffeur in justice court on a drunk and disorderly charge. They were fined. The actor, with Mrs. Carl and members of his company, came to Muskegon when his show closed in Chicago to spend a few weeks.

SUICIDE THEORY IN FORSELL CASE

Belief Now Prevails That Two Harbors Man Took His Life.

Two Harbors, Minn., Aug. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The accumulating evidence in the case of Oscar Forsell, the laborer found dead on the Iron Range tracks near here early Friday, is that he killed himself. The theory that he was murdered by several parties in the throat, and a knife lay near the body, is being abandoned.

The coroner will hold an inquest tomorrow. It is expected that the body will be thrown on the tracks.

Forsell came to this country only recently from the old country, and before he had been working for the Wisconsin Central near Duluth. A report that he had been killed by a train, which was not seen alive and nothing when found dead, led to the report that he had been killed for his money, but this theory will probably not be borne out at tomorrow's inquest.

TWENTY DRILLS ON THE ADAMS

New Ore Bodies in Eveleth Property Being Opened Up.

Eveleth, Minn., Aug. 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—About twenty drills are at work on the Adams mining property exploring for ore. These drills are kept going all the time and new ore bodies are being opened up. The new stripping work at the Adams is through some old work, the ore of which was first taken out by the shaft method. After laying dormant for some years this property has been decided to get out the rest of the ore by steam shovel.

The old Adams caves are being filled in with the over burden of the new Adams stripping. The Adams and Spruce shafts are very low and will be all cleared up this summer as the stripping this season has been very close from all the shafts.

The putting of two new shafts this winter in the new Adams stripping so that the ore under the layer of taconite can be taken out will be commenced in a couple of months. As the layer of taconite is about twenty feet deep it has been deemed most advisable to use the shaft system to get at the ore under the taconite and then let the ground above cave in, allowing the use of the milling system. This will save the mining company a great expense. From present indications the mining around here will be grater during the winter months.

USE OF KIND WORDS

Johnson, the regular pastor who exchanged pulpits with Rev. Hill and spoke at Coleraine. Rev. Hill also spoke in the morning. His evening subject was "May the words of my mouth be acceptable unto thee, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer." He spoke in general of the result of good and kind words and the result of bad and unkind words. He said that you will do and say the right thing at the right time you will prosper. He declared: A large congregation attended.

At the First Presbyterian church Rev. F. A. Schwartz delivered sermons both morning and evening. In the evening there was a large attendance. The First Presbyterian Sunday school will hold its picnic this week.

The men were compelled to stop work because of the heavy rains that fell all day. The trenches already dug are now filled with water and it is a matter of a few days before work will be resumed. Sidewalks and culverts on the outskirts of town were torn away by the water.

The mines are short of men, owing to the return of many foreigners to the old country and others leaving the town. The wages have increased at some of the mines owing to the scarcity of men.

STOP PREMIUMS WITH TOBACCO. New Tariff Forbids Giving of Coupons With Smoking Purchases.

There is a little joker in the tobacco schedule of the new tariff that will cause a great deal of mental anguish to the local smokers.

The tariff enacts that no package of cigars, tobacco or cigarettes shall carry any coupon or premium, or offer of any order of certificate for any money, prize, gift, premium, payment or reward.

Thereby rings the woe of any tobacco smoker who had the wild idea that within a lifetime they could save enough coupons to get a lead pencil or the capital prize, which is a hearse and nine carriages.

A number of the various brands of tobacco on sale throughout the country have a coupon or certificate or tag in the package which entitles the purchaser to some premium running all the way from a fine-tooth comb to a baby carriage.

Fortunately the tariff gives the tobaccoist time to dispose of the stock they have on hand before the law goes into effect, otherwise they would be compelled to open every package and take out the coupon.

STYLE, QUALITY AND LASTING SATISFACTION IN HASTINGS TABLES

When You Buy a Table

You don't expect to have to buy another one in a year or two, and you won't have to or want to if you buy a Hastings.

The Hastings tables are built for style and service—they last in service and they last in satisfaction—every piece of material that goes into their make-up is carefully inspected before it is allowed to be used. From the time the material leaves the inspector's hands until it comes out of the factory a finished table, no detail is too small to receive careful attention—the result is the best built, best finished and most serviceable table on the market.

The tables are built in the only factory in the country that makes pedestal tables exclusively, and is the only table on the market fitted with a Tyden Lock. No pedestal table is a success without this lock. Come in and let us show you these tables. We carry a complete line of them, and you cannot buy them elsewhere. Prices range up from

George Daus, the hero of many hard fought games this year, was the bright particular luminary of yesterday's contest, holding the right field which has been his only two of the Schoonhoveners reached first base and he allowed only twenty-seven men to face his puzzlers in the nine innings. Score, Duluth 4, Eau Claire 0.

As Jack Desmond would say, "she was a great game." Young Miller Daus was heard to remark while warming up before the game, that he had a sore arm and didn't have anything on the ball. For a youth who didn't have anything, George sure did give a mastery exhibition of twirling.

McNitt was the only man on the Orphan outfit who got anything resembling a hit. He got a drive into right field that was a big hit. He was the first time at bat, Kahl handled McNitt's grounder, so he was the only man on the Eau Claire team who saw first base yesterday. McNitt went on twice, dying by the daisies each time. Daus' exhibition yesterday will go down into the history of the young league as one of the great games of the year. His curves have been sharp, he had perfect control, and at the time in the game he gave the Sox a chance for the opposition batters.

In only two innings did the opposition get a man into base. McNitt's grounder and the left fielder's error gave the Sox a hit. In the next frame, McNitt tried to steal second, and was thrown out. In the eighth frame, McNitt made the hit that robbed Daus of the obnoxious error. McNitt followed with an off-bat, which was a hit. It was a Texas leaguer over first base. Then came the sensational play of the game. Kahl, Henry O'Brien, and Daus, who were in the left field, all had a chance to make a dash for the ball, spurring it with his glove. McNitt shot it to the left in ample time to head off McNitt, who, thinking the ball safe, was hiking toward second.

Smiling Pete Nelson got on in the first inning. McNitt was hit by Daus, who went to third when Brech went to second. McNitt was hit by Daus, who went to third when Brech went to second. McNitt was hit by Daus, who went to third when Brech went to second.

In the second, the Sox went out in one, two, three order, and in the third Count, Kahl, Henry O'Brien, and Daus, who were in the left field, all had a chance to make a dash for the ball, spurring it with his glove. McNitt shot it to the left in ample time to head off McNitt, who, thinking the ball safe, was hiking toward second.

After one was gone in the fifth Daus drew a base on balls. Nelson grounded to Caldwell and was thrown out at first. Daus attempted to go to third on the play and was caught at Caldwell's station. In the sixth O'Brien got a single, Kahl, Henry O'Brien, and Daus, who were in the left field, all had a chance to make a dash for the ball, spurring it with his glove. McNitt shot it to the left in ample time to head off McNitt, who, thinking the ball safe, was hiking toward second.

The Sox scored again in the eighth frame. McNitt was hit by Daus, who went to third when Brech went to second. McNitt was hit by Daus, who went to third when Brech went to second. McNitt was hit by Daus, who went to third when Brech went to second.

Japan's Reply Makes East Feeling in Circles at

Pekin, Aug. 10.—Japan has made reply to the last Chinese communication regarding the re-construction of the Antung-Mukden railroad, in which the Japanese government has agreed that the line be of standard gauge and suggested the resumption of negotiations on the other the negotiations be resumed at Moscow where they were broken off by the Japanese. It is probable that this will be the case.

China today is taking a more optimistic view of the situation, and the tension of the last few days is probably lessened.

In view of the publication of official statements that Japan has no intention of sending military operations to the interior of China, it is probable that the negotiations will be resumed at Moscow where they were broken off by the Japanese. It is probable that this will be the case.

Japanese minister here, denied official today that there were any Japanese troops in Chientao. The Japanese government has been informed by fifty or sixty, he said, but that is all.

Japan had repeatedly assured the minister continued, that the forces in Chientao did not affect the situation in Manchuria.

The negotiations that are being conducted here between Japan and China on the general Manchuria question that were to have been resumed today have been postponed. Japan declines to consider these matters until a final settlement of the Mukden railroad question.

PAVING OF GARFIELD

Wholesalers and Jobbers Will Hold Meeting Wednesday.

Definite Plan of Action Will Be Decided Upon.

The wholesalers and jobbers of Duluth will hold a meeting at the Commercial club tomorrow noon to take up the question of paving Garfield street. The matter has been hanging fire for some little time, and is now at a stage where quick action will be necessary. If the city wishes to take advantage of the authority granted by the last legislature to issue $50,000 bonds to pay a portion of the cost of making the improvement.

It is believed that some decisive plan of action will be decided upon at the meeting tomorrow. All the wholesalers and jobbers of the city will be represented, it is believed, and a plan will be determined, once and for all, whether these interests are to be added to furnish the share of money for the pavement that is expected of them. The original plan was that the city should stand one-half the cost, the business interests one-fourth and the owners of abutting property one-fourth. While this ratio may not hold through to the end, the property owners, the city and the wholesalers will all bear a part.

It is estimated that the cost of the proposed pavement will cost upwards of $100,000. The question is in what is an almost impassable condition at the present time, the improvement is made, another year will see it as good as new.

The condition of the thoroughfare has been widely commented on, and efforts to raise the money necessary for its improvement have been made for the last two or three years. Mayor Haven thought he had arrived at the only possible solution last winter, when he got a bill through the legislature permitting the city to issue $50,000 bonds to cover its share of the improvement, but there has been some delay in the matter.

Now that the wholesalers have taken hold of the affair in earnest, it is believed that the desired result may be brought about.

No matter how long you have suffered, Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. Mrs. S. L. Bowen of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease, so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. ## MAYOR HAVEN HAS GRIEVANCE Says Public Has Wrong Idea About Sixth Avenue Viaduct.

"I'll admit that the public has some cause to complain at the delay in repairing the Sixth avenue viaduct, but there is no reason why any of these complaints should be directed at the administration as they seem to be," said Mayor Haven this morning. "If there are any kicks, make them in no way to blame."

People generally do not seem to understand that forcing the railroad to rebuild the viaduct was not one of the city's duties. The city is not out of pocket $50,000 or $60,000, but are upholding a principle as well as a municipal asset. The city is not out of pocket $50,000 or $60,000, but are upholding a principle as well as a municipal asset.

"I took the matter up with the railroad, and they said they would not do it. I then called for the repair of the structure, out of the city treasury, and I vetoed the resolution as they seem to be," said Mayor Haven this morning. "If there are any kicks, make them in no way to blame."

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

SEND BOAT TO OSHKOSH

Allegro Will Represent Duluth in Big Interlake Regatta.

Four Boat Club Members Will Sail New Brewer Boat.

Charles Brower and his merry crew, who will sail the Allegro, the 32-foot class boat that won the pennant for the Class B boats in the Duluth Boat Club races this season, will leave for Oshkosh, Wis., Thursday to participate in the races of the Interlake regatta, which will be sailed from Aug. 16 to 21.

In addition to Mr. Brower, the owner and skipper of the Allegro, the crew will be composed of "Slim" McDonald, Allan Trux and P. R. Kennedy. These men are among the best sailors at the head of the lakes, and the speedy Allegro should be one of the formidable competitors for the cup offered by the Interlake association.

Some of the fastest boats in the Northwest will compete in the races of the Interlake association. It has been the custom of the association to hold the annual regatta at different lakes, where some member of the association has a club. The club at Oshkosh has shown great success in the association, and it is believed that the regatta to be held there will be one of the most successful fresh water regatta ever held in this section of the country.

The new Allegro should give a good account of herself at the Oshkosh regatta. She is one of the latest design boats, and in the races of the local club has shown great success. The Allegro crew are confident that they will win the cup.

CONCERNING WOMAN.

Duluth's own particular pageant passed off last evening on the bay in front of the main houses of the Duluth Boat club and was a moving spectacle of great beauty and charm. The affair was the annual Venetian festival of the Duluth Boat club, and each year the event proves more beautiful and a wider interest is taken in it. This year it was suggested by a prominent Duluth citizen, that the Venetian festival be made a municipal affair something typical of Duluth, that might not only provide a joyous festival for the citizens, but prove a splendid advertising feature for the city. It is hard to realize how the beauty of last evening's affair could be increased, but with a little lighted lanterns, the event, a greater holiday spirit might be felt throughout the city and larger displays, including other portions of the city, might be arranged.

The night was perfect for the spectacle, and from the time the first soft tinted lanterns gleamed against the dark sky of the early twilight, like the flames of fire in an oval, until the last lantern was extinguished late in the evening, every moment had its particular and unchangeable charm. From the roof and sides of the club to the farthest end of the last launch house, the Japanese lanterns in soft pinks and greens and delicate figured designs, gleamed and danced along the bay, the tennis courts and the outline of a four-square roof marked by the lanterns, and from the water the lanterns, with a sparkling outline of lights. The canoes were converted into little hovels of coziness with frameworks of prettily colored lanterns and were lit with the lighted lanterns. The effect was indescribably pretty. The lights seemed like jewels bobbing about in the darkness, and their reflections in the black water seemed like stars. The rowboats were also decorated and there was hardly a launch in the harbor but was gaily decorated and lighted.

T. F. Cole's yacht Althea was brilliantly lighted in red, white and blue electric lights and Mr. and Mrs. Cole entertained a party of guests to view the affair from their boat. The Althea and the New York were the only boats in the bay with prodigious jost to port, where the people were crowded to see the parade. The Third Regiment band, on a well-lighted and decorated barge, led the parade, followed by the clubs of canoes and rowboats. After the while the parade was finished in front of the boat house. The band was hurried to the tennis courts, and there the dancing party was held. The dance was danced with an abandon of enjoyment that is seldom permitted exuberant youth, for there was no danger of falling water or the floor caving in. The members of the club, each with a lighted lantern in his elbow to see his dance, and the figures of the dancers in the dim gray light of the night made a picture with a charm all its own. The crowd at the club was admirably cared for. It is thought, that nearly 5,000 people were present, and they were seated in the bay with the quarters that there was no undue crowding, and the tennis courts were not so strait upon the porch. The third annual water pageant of the Duluth Boat club was certainly an unequalled success.

FAMILY IS SUING HIM

Alex McLaren, Jr., Fighting Mother, Brother and Sister in Court.

They Claim He Secured
Large Share of Father's Estate.

Mrs. Christina McLaren, widow of Alexander McLaren, and her daughter,
Mrs. Florence McLaren Nibbe, and son,
William, are the plaintiffs in an action commenced yesterday in the district court against Mrs. McLaren's son, Alexander McLaren, Jr.

The plaintiffs are seeking to compel the defendant to give up title to lands in St. Louis county said to be valuable on account of a good showing of mineral.

According to the complaint filed yesterday, the elder McLaren was involved in a land deal which had a questionable side, and as a result of which he was threatened with criminal prosecution.
He sold 1,000 acres of land located in St. Louis county to J. B. Kehl and Lorenzo Newman for $12,000. The deed was not recorded, and it is alleged that Alex McLaren, Jr. induced his father to give a deed to George E. Rolfe for the lands which his father had sold to Kehl.

When the elder McLaren died in June, 1907, he divided his estate, giving his wife one-third, his daughter, Mrs.
Florence McLaren, one-third, and his son, Alexander McLaren, Jr., one-third.
The three children, Alexander McLaren,
Mrs. Florence McLaren, and William, were asked to relinquish their claim to the lands deeded to him to enable him to close the Kehl and Newman deal, and he did so, in part, but still refuses to convey the title to lands in St. Louis county to the plaintiffs.

SAYS REPUBLICANS
MUST PAY PENALTY

Governor Johnson Thinks the Payne Tariff Law Will React on Party.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 11.—That the passage of the Payne tariff bill by the Republican congress is bound to react on the strength of the Republican party in the United States is the opinion of Governor John A. Johnson, as expressed here yesterday. Governor Johnson, who is in Winnipeg on his way back from the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle.

The governor was introduced at a banquet in the evening as a presidential possibility, and was so referred to by the speaker of the evening. He himself spoke earnestly about the possibilities and opportunities of trade between Canada and the United States.
During the day the governor was made guest of the city. He left last night on a special train for St. Paul, being obliged by official duties to deliver an invitation to inspect the Manitoba wheat country in the company of Secretary of Agriculture William Wright of the Canadian Pacific. Gen. and Mrs.
William Gasser of Duluth were with the governor's party in Winnipeg.

of them. His new duties will take him to Pittsburgh, where he will take up his residence Sept. 1.

Superior iron mining circles. He was formerly manager of mines for the Jones & Laughlin company, which has Steel company, which is expected to succeed Mr. Fairbairn as general manager in this district.

ARE SHOWING UP A MINE

Rich Ore Deposit Is Found on the Vermilion Range.

Joseph Roy, superintendent of exploration for the Vermilion Steel & Iron company, was in Duluth yesterday, and he reported that excellent results have been obtained by the diamond drilling operations now in progress on the Vermilion range. Two diamond drills, operating on section 6-62-14, have shown up millions of tons of hematite ore of good grade, with little or no dead work, he said.

One of the drills reached ore at a depth of 196 feet and continued in it 1 day, and he reported that it was still in the mineral when it was moved 1,000 feet to start a fresh hole. The drill again struck ore at a depth of 337 feet, and is now down fifty feet.
The first hole hit ore at a depth of 196 feet, and is now down fifty feet.
The drill has shown about 200 feet of ore, and is reported to be still in the mineral. The vein is 300 feet between the walls, and test pits have shown that the entire section is rich in ore.

The property is what is known as the old Sheridan homestead, and is situated on the Vermilion range, about twenty-five miles from Duluth. It has never before been explored. Mr. E. Walsh of Duluth is president of the Vermilion Steel & Iron company. A shaft will be sunk, and the property is expected to be a heavy producer within a few years.

INSPECTOR OF IRON BEDSTEADS

Uncle Sam Issues Call to Fill an Odd Vacancy.

Do you know anything about iron bedsteads?

If you do, Uncle Sam has a place waiting for you. The quartermaster's department of the government has issued a call for inspector of iron bedsteads at St. Louis. The job carries a salary of $123 a month. The quartermaster is evidently up against it on the examination in question, for he has decided that the usual educational test will be dispensed with, and rating will be solely upon experience as shown in the application blank.
Though the circular does not state the position is probably that of inspecting the iron beds being purchased for the army barracks throughout the country. Applications must be submitted to the civil service commission at Washington before Aug. 28, 1909.

The government also wants a young man for naval observatory assistant, and 27 for this position. There is a decided educational test in this case, as the applicant is expected to be up on all branches of algebra, geometry, trigonometry, calculus, mechanics and astronomy.

WANTS REFUND ON MINING STOCK

George M. Smith Says Promoter Represented Property Falsely.

Claiming that David T. Adams used fraudulent representations to sell him
$7,000 of California Calaveras mining stock, George M. Smith yesterday commenced action in the district court to recover the $7,000 plus interest.

Mr. Adams asserted, according to the complaint, that the company valuable property, that the sale was going rapidly, and that he would buy back the stock at any time the plaintiff wished to sell.

Mr. Smith alleged that the stock has not now, and never has had, any market value.

to Take Up Manual Labor.

Kenosha, Wis., Aug. 11.—Ex-Judge Joseph R. Clarkson of this city, who wandered away from his home last month under the spell of a strange impulse which drove him to manual labor, and who was found after weeks of search working in a button factory in Seattle, Wash., has been announced to return to his former profession of the law. His name has been on the payroll of a manufacturing firm in Kenosha.

Five men, a place where I can do manual labor, told his friends, "I want to work with my hands and enjoy the pleasure of doing a day's work."
I am improving my muscles I also will improve my mind, with the ultimate view of entering the bar.

Formal dissolution of the law partnership of Mr. Clarkson and Robert
V. Baker was announced last night.

Choice Range Mining Property Will Soon Be Developed.

The North American Mining company of this city will start a shaft on section 4-61-15 in the near future. The company owns outright 200 acres in sections 22 and 27-62-13 and 12-67-15. They also have a fifty-year mining lease on 160 acres in 4-61-15.

The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 and there are 1,000,000 shares, the par value of which is $1.00. Only 100,000 shares will be sold and the money will go to the treasurer of the company and will be used for the development of the lands. There are no paid officers and the company is free from all debt.

The lands mentioned were selected by T. J. Walsh, the president of the company, many years ago, when he had the whole area of the range to select from. The lands are situated a few miles from Tower and the Iron Range railroad crosses one of the tracts.

The titles to all the property owned by this company are said to be perfect, with the exception of the property in 4-61-15 where an ore formation has been stripped in one place for about 200 feet, there has been no work done on any of the properties. Neither wall of the above formation was reached.

Police reserves were called out when the men commenced to stop street cars to search for strike-breakers, and the state troops were busy for several hours dispersing the crowds that congregated about the streets.

One man, a foreman, while going to work, fired four shots in the air when he supposed he was about to be attacked by strikers. He was arrested for discharging the revolver.

WASP AND ITS PREY.

London Globe: As Dr. Darwin was walking one day in his garden he perceived a wasp upon the gravel walk, with a large fly, nearly as big as itself, which it had caught. Knitting down, he distinctly saw it cut off the head of the prey, and then, taking up with its feet the trunk or middle portion of the body, fly away.

But a breeze of wind acting on the wings of the fly turned around the wasp with its burden and impeded its progress. Upon this it alighted again on the gravel walk, deliberately sawed off first one wing and then the other, and, having thus removed the cause of its embarrassment, flew off with its booty.

CINCINNATI'S SUBSTITUTE FOR THE TEDDY BEAR

PLAYING WITH THE PARK LION.

They have a new playmate for the children at the "Zoo" in Cincinnati. It is a fairly well-grown lion, Lion cub, but not uncommon bear, but as soon as a lion grows big enough to feel his strength, it is usually safer to keep him in seclusion. The Cincinnati lion, however, will "roar like any sucking dove" when children are about. This little group, which played with him quite fearlessly, is part of the group of orphans from the city institutions which spent a day at the "Zoo" recently.

Secretary of State Prohibition Committee Lauds Temperance Efforts.

G. Calderwood, secretary of the state prohibition committee.

Mr. Turko elicited loud applause as he told of the great work being done by the Finns in the cause of temperance in this section.

Mr. Calderwood, in the course of his address complimented the Finnish people for their aggressive work for temperance and said: "I feel very keenly the lack of interest among the English speaking people as compared to yours in the reform that has brought you together. The Finns have a strong sentiment on the part of the English speaking people as compared to yours in the reform that has brought you together. The Finns have a strong sentiment on the part of the English speaking people as compared to yours in the reform that has brought you together."

Speaking of the methods of getting at the liquor traffic, Mr. Calderwood said that men did not get drunk on screens and chairs, but in liquor. The sale of liquor continues to some extent in prohibition territory because it is concealed in bottles, etc., and is not continued because breweries and distilleries with their door space and chimneys could not be closed. The prohibition puts the lid on the 2,000 breweries and the 2,000 distilleries. They cannot be hid.

The speaker said: "We are offering today an opportunity to help this movement to those who believe that we should conserve the greatest resources, the youth with their possibilities."

Second Avenue East and Superior Street.

REPAIR WORK IS UNDONE

Did the work. The avenue is in worse condition now than it was after July's big storm.

Fourth street was washed out between Fifteenth and Fifteenth and a piece of the street was badly damaged. Twenty-fourth avenue east, between Second and Fourth streets, was also badly damaged. No other streets were seriously damaged. President Preston of the board of public works looked over the downtown streets last evening, and had a crew of men and teams at work all night carrying away the mud and gravel washed on to Superior street. At the intersection of Lake avenue, at some of the street corners, notably Fourth avenue west, the water was five or six inches deep at the side of the storm, but was quickly subsided as the storm abated.

The scene of First avenue, west, south of Superior street, had been torn up for repairs, and last night a mass of water rushed down the street, attracted much attention from the passers-by. The water was forced into the street, and the water was forced into the street, and the water was forced into the street.

ARGUE CASE IN THE PRESS

examination on them upon the questions at issue.

Inquiry Will End Soon.

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 11.—With only half a dozen witnesses expected to be heard and the examination of these expected to be brief, the inquiry into the death of Lieutenant Sutton of the U. S. marine corps promises to end within the next two days.

After the taking of testimony ends, Maj. Leonard, judge advocate, will read the charges against Mrs. Sutton, and Attorney Finney will read the defense. Maj. Leonard then will close the case.

Both Rose Sutton Parker of St. Paul, Minn., whose testimony has been looked forward to as of surprising interest, was the center of attraction at the position yesterday. She took the stand suddenly and was willing witness and demonstrated clearly that her memory of her interview with Lieut. Adams, shortly after her brother's death, was much better than that of the witness on the same points of the interview.

Mrs. Parker was positive in her statements as to what was said and done. It was notable from her testimony that whether or not Adams and Sutton were friendly Adams and Mrs. Parker parted most amiably after a little while, the last time in a couple of hours and ending about midnight at a local restaurant, at which Adams was one of Mrs. Parker's guests. It was remarked here, that Mr. Birney, counsel for Lieut. Adams, will follow Mrs. Parker to any extent on cross-examination.

Presit

The beer drinking English and Germans were our common ancestors, and by birthright we inherit their tastes and necessities.

The triumph of the Brewer's Craft—"Old Style Lager"—fulfills our constitutional requirements. Its taste is still its point of excellence because it is famous for its snappy taste.

"Old Style Lager" appeals to the particular man and the discriminating physician. Intelligent persons of this class well understand that the small percentage of alcohol in "Old Style Lager" will act as a tonic which will develop and strengthen the body and brain.

ON THE IRON RANGES*WORK IS HALTED BY HEAVY RAIN

Canisteo and Walker Pits Full and Operations Suspended.

Bovey, Minn., Aug. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—The employees of the Oliver Iron Mining company night shift were forced to go home last night owing to the heavy rain, that has been falling.

The Canisteo and Walker pits are full of water and although several engines are at work pumping water out, it is rumored work cannot be started for three or four days if the down-pour continues all night. Water is running in the Canisteo river and all low places are entirely filled. Lou Simons was a guest at the Oliver Iron Mining company last night.

Frank Oldend of Coleraine has bought the merry-go-round and is still running it here.

Mrs. Harry Topping is to entertain the Ladies' Aid this afternoon.

Eveleth, Minn., Aug. 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—Indications today are for a continuance of the same. All the building and sidewalk work has been stopped on that account and the water coming down from the hills has washed away ditches in all the streets. This continued wet spell has been hindering the work of the city.

There has only been one dry day since last Thursday.

JOHN G. OSTBY SHOT DOWN BY SON---BOY ARRAIGNED ON A CHARGE OF MURDER

Lad Claimed Father Had Treated His Mother Harshly.

Parents Had Quarreled Over Payment of Undertakers' Bill.

Youth Refuses to Talk Unless Advised by His Attorney.

Born Ostby, 18 years of age, shot and killed his father, John G. Ostby, 46 years old, of 528 East Sixth street, shortly before 3 o'clock last evening, supposedly because he believed the older man had not treated Mrs. Ostby with the proper consideration. The murderer gave himself up to the police and is now at the city jail. He refuses to talk about the crime.

The shooting occurred at the family residence. The youth used a .22-caliber Winchester repeating rifle. The bullet entered the face at the angle of the jaw, penetrated the brain and passed through the back of the skull. It is believed two shots may have been fired, but this will not be known until a post-mortem examination is held. Coroner J. A. McCuen and Dr. Robert Graham made a hasty examination last evening, but put off a thorough examination until today.

The boy and his father were alone in the house at the time of the murder, which followed within half an hour after Mr. and Mrs. Ostby had a quarrel over an unpaid undertakers' bill, which had been standing about two months. The woman told her husband to sue for the bill, and set out to see if she could not raise money with which to square up the account. (Continued on page 5 fourth column) and Office Looted in Kentucky.

King's Mountain, Ky., Aug. 12.—Through a window while asleep J. A. Englemann, agent of the Queen & Crescent railway, was shot dead last night in the office of the company here. His jewelry was taken and his pockets rifled, but a considerable sum of money belonging to the railroad company was untouched.

This is the second night agent of the railroad killed at almost the same hour and in the same manner within the last two years.

SUTTON'S DEATH SCENE IS ENACTED IN COURTROOM

Lieutenants Take Positions That They Say They Had That Night.

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 12.—The court of inquiry investigating the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton, U. S. M. C., began this morning what was expected to be the final day of testimony. Dr. Edward M. Schaeffer of Washington, called as an expert on gunshot wounds, resumed the stand.

Sergeant Todd went on the stand at the afternoon session yesterday and brought into official evidence some points not in consonance with the evidence which had been given previously by the same officer of the marine corps. When the court opened yesterday, Lieut. Schaeffer had shown on a skull the location and direction of the bullet wound which caused the death of Lieut. Sutton, and had declared that, under the conditions established by the testimony, it would have been impossible for Lieut. Sutton to fire the shot.

Counsel for Lieut. Adams cross-examined the witness and had him take a position on the counsel table similar to that occupied by Lieut. Sutton on (Continued on page 5, third column)

Under Failure to Reach Terms.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Traction officials and union leaders resumed their negotiations today in an attempt to reach a satisfactory plan for the settlement of the dispute between the street car employees of this city and the street railway companies. It was still thought many quarters that the wage dispute would be settled without resort to arbitration or to calling out the car employees, who have voted to strike in case their demands are refused by the railway officials. The situation is becoming darker. (Continued on page 5 fourth column)

STRIKER IS SHOT DOWN BY NEGRO

First Fatality at McKee's Rocks Results From Attack on Workman.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 12.—The first fatality growing out of the strike at McKee's Rocks occurred today. Steve Horvat, one of the strikers, was shot and killed by Major Smith, a negro, whom a crowd of two score striking foreigners had attacked by mistake. The negro, journeying to his work at the Pennsylvania Malleable company's plant, was accosted by a crowd of strikers, and accused of being "a strike breaker" in the employ of the Pressed Steel Car company. The mob knocked him down and was unmercifully beating him when he drew a revolver and commenced to shoot. At almost the first shot, Horvat fell, mortally wounded. Smith was arrested.

Patrick Shevlin Meets Instant Death in Railroad Yards.

Loses His Balance While Standing on a Flat Car.

Patrick Shevlin, 46 years of age, of 1524 Banker avenue, Superior, was killed this morning in the railroad yards near the Lake avenue viaduct. He was run over by a string of freight cars, and the body was badly mangled. The remains were taken to Flood & Hogan's undertaking rooms.

Mr. Shevlin was foreman of a switching crew, and was employed by the Northern Pacific railway. His death occurred while he was engaged in his regular work this morning. He was standing on the end of a flat car, and lost his footing when a string of freight cars were shunted along the track into the end of the flat car. He fell between the cars, underneath the wheels, and death came almost instantaneously. The accident occurred shortly after 9 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Shevlin had been a resident of Superior for the past twenty years, and was one of the best known railroad men at the Head of the Lakes. He had been connected with the Northern Pacific for a number of years. Most of his working hours were put in on this side of the bay. The deceased is survived by a widow and four daughters. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Estimates of Expense of Extra Session of Congress Are Made.

Washington, Aug. 12.—The extraordinary session of congress which completed one week ago its revision of the tariff law, cost the American people, it has been estimated by some of the statisticians around the capital, about $500,000.

Many different items enter into this grand total, the chief of which is mileage. The house's expense on this account aggregate $154,000, and those of the senate $47,000. Extra pay allowed to employees on both sides of the capitol amounted, it is estimated, to about $150,000. Special employees engaged in compiling information for congress and the committees, relative to the tariff were paid good salaries. The government printing office has not yet supplied a statement concerning the cost of printing of the tariff bill, reports and hearings, but it is known that this will be large.

Prisoner Leaps From Train
After Being Taken Across

York, Pa., Aug. 12.—After voluntarily surrendering in California and being brought across the continent to answer a charge of murder in Maryland, Scott Johnson, aged 23 years, jumped from the platform of a sleeping car on a Pennsylvania railroad train south of Rising Sun, Md., last May. A man named McAllister, employed on the same farm, was found murdered. At the same time Johnson was missing. No trace of Johnson was obtained until a few weeks ago, when notice was received from Santa Rosa, Cal., that he had given himself up there and admitted having killed McAllister. Sheriff Hager of Cecil county went to Santa Rosa to bring Johnson back to face the charge.

The train from which Johnson jumped was going fifty miles an hour.

Jerome Is Given Good Words ---Asylum Keepers Are Warned.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 12.—The state of New York won a complete victory over Harry K. Thaw today, when Justice Louis N. Mills decided that the slayer of Stanford White is still insane and sent him back to the criminal insane asylum at Matteawan. Not one of the many contentions made by Thaw during the three weeks of his recent hearing were sustained. He is, however, somewhat better off than before he brought the present suit, because Justice Mills in his decision suggests—and the suggestion amounts practically to orders—that Thaw at Matteawan be restored to the privileges he enjoyed during the first three months of his stay there, and that his mother be allowed all the possible privileges and treated with every consideration when she calls to see him. Thaw will remain at the jail at least until tomorrow, when his attorney will be given a chance to make any formal motions before Justice Mills at his chambers in Albany.

Justice Court's Opinion.
The prisoner took the decision coolly, his only statement was a denial of the assertion in the court's opinion that he still cherished the saner ideas that drove him to shoot White. In formal language Justice Mills' decision dismissed the writ of habeas corpus under which Thaw applied for his liberty, and "remanded him to the custody of the defendant—(Dr. Robert B. Lamb, superintendent of Matteawan State hospital)—whence he was produced here."

In concluding that Thaw is now insane, the court gives first importance (Continued on page 5, fifth column)

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 12.—Delegates to the national encampment of the G. A. R. met today in executive session to hear the annual address of the commander-in-chief and to nominate new officers. It was understood also that resolutions in favor of certain pension and other legislation might cause animated debate. The voting, which is to elect a new commander-in-chief and determine the next meeting place, is scheduled for tomorrow. It is generally believed that Ex-Governor Samuel R. Van Sant of Minnesota is the choice for the nomination, and Atlantic City for the city.

Business sessions also were held today by the Ladies of the G. A. R., the Women's Relief corps, the Army Nurses, the Daughters of Veterans and the National War Veterans.

FIVE ARMIES TO INVADE MEXICO

Revolutionists Are Found to Have Plotted Big Step for October.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 12.—Further investigation today of the papers captured here Tuesday afternoon when two Mexican revolutionists were arrested by federal officers, showed that the plan of the revolutionists had progressed to the point where the actual invasion of Mexico was under discussion. These letters and papers showed that every effort had been made to rush the work to completion in order to be ready to start operations on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande some time during October, and certainly during this year.

At the time these plans were discovered by the officers it had been agreed that five separate armies should cross the Rio Grande. These armies were to start from five points along the Texas border and one was to move ahead of the rest to cause a concentration of main troops.

ELLIS ISLAND USED TO GET WHITE SLAVES

New York, Aug. 12.—The crusade against the traffic in the management of immigrant societies in this city, which began Tuesday with the burning of two societies, has shown conditions which officials declare will be called to the attention of congress at its next session.

In an interview Congressman William S. Bennett, a member of the committee appointed by congress to investigate the immigration problem, says that an inquiry by the commission has shown that 75 per cent of the "homes" in New York have perverted the purposes for which they were organized. The most serious charge made by Mr. Bennett is that agents for disreputable resorts have been able to get to those homes and obtain girls, newly arrived from foreign countries, who believed they were about to find employment in desirable places. The agents have paid from $1 to $5 apiece for the girls thus secured, he says.

Pension for 500,411. The number of survivors of the Civil war at the close of the last fiscal year was 500,411. The number of survivors on the pension rolls May 31, 1909, was 500,411. The amount appropriated for pensions during the year was $162,000,000.

During the year ending June 30, 1909, in the national and state hospitals, the support of old and needy soldiers, was $1,187,361.

At the summer heat yesterday thinned the annual parade of the G. A. R., the feature of the forty-third annual meeting and wrought still more suffering among the hundreds of children who were allowed to accompany the parade of the living flag. So oppressive was the heat that the parade was abandoned.

The assistant superintendent of the Mattawoman asylum, Mr. J. H. Smith, says Justice Mills, are public officers with no conceivable motives except to do the best.

Thaw's Experts Retain. The court says the more convinced by the testimony of the alienists called for the state than by that of the prisoner's experts. Regarding Dr. Britton D. Evans, he says:

"The unimpaired great difficulty in reconciling his present opinion with his previous attitude in connection with the homicide trial, and to my mind did not entirely succeed in so doing."

Thaw's mother, Mrs. Mary Thaw, was evidently made a bad impression upon the jury by her testimony. The opinion calls particular attention to Thaw's facts, especially of the late afternoon of his testimony, when he spoke in justification of "his extraordinary belief as to White's conduct with the mother."

An unusual paragraph in Justice Mills' opinion is devoted to Mr. Harry K. Thaw, the prisoner's mother. The judge's opinion is scathing in many portions, and includes a strong rebuke to the mother, especially of the late afternoon of his testimony, when he spoke in justification of "his extraordinary belief as to White's conduct with the mother."

UNION LABOR OUT AFTER GOVERNOR DRAPER'S SCALP

Boston, Aug. 12.—Referring to the Governor of Massachusetts merely as "Eben S. ## RETIRING JUDGE "CANED."

Menominee, Mich., Aug. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—As a result of the election and respect in which he is held by the members of the bar of the state, Judge Stone, who has been elected to the supreme bench, has been presented by the attorneys, with a cane.

First Story Holds Good.

It is true that the new testimony upon this trial introduced in behalf of the prisoner tends to materially alter the history of his early life as above stated. I am convinced, however, that in such a case the testimony of the prisoner is not to be taken as the basis of a verdict, but that the testimony of the state is to be taken as the basis of a verdict.

Second Ground.

The court is also disposed to pay great respect to the oral testimony of the state, especially in the case of Dr. Baker, the hospital physician, who has given actual charge of the case. All such authorities are public officials, and their testimony is to be taken as the basis of a verdict.

Third Ground.

In view of leading traits of the law testimony given by so many entirely respectable and creditable witnesses, showing rational conduct on the prisoner's part in the case, the court is disposed to take the testimony of the state as the basis of a verdict.

Fourth Ground.

The testimony of the state is to be taken as the basis of a verdict. The testimony of the state is to be taken as the basis of a verdict. The testimony of the state is to be taken as the basis of a verdict.

As to Evelyn Nesbit.

Continuing his history of Thaw's life, Judge Nesbit says:

"About 1901 he became enamored of a young woman, Miss Nesbit, whom he afterwards married. She was then, by common reputation, well known to him, the mistress or a mistress of Stanford White. She told the relation to Thaw, and obviously to account to him for her former position with White, told him variously wild and grossly improbable stories of the inception of that relation."

"Although he, Thaw, himself was far from a moral man, and was then engaged or

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Richester.—Alice, the 7-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. August Brehmer, was attacked by a vicious female dog while entering the barn on her father's property. The girl was thrown to the

Raw Milk—Like Raw Meat—Is a Dangerous Food

There are so many tubercular cows now that we must come to sterilization. There is no other way to always avoid getting an infected milk.

This change from raw milk to sterilized milk is a question of safety, not taste.

Sterilized milk, like all heated milk, has a slightly almond taste. Some people may say they like raw milk the better.

Some may like potatoes raw, but raw starch won't digest. And some may like raw meat, perhaps, but we know we dare not eat it.

So with raw milk—in a multiplied way. It is so often infected that careful people know that they must avoid it.

Milk that's unsterilized is always unsafe.

Healthy Holstein Cows

Our cows are Holsteins—the world's best breed. Robust, contented, famous for their splendid vitality.

Holstein milk is immeasurably better than the milk from mongrel cows.

These cows are all inspected. Millions of tubercular cows are milked every day, but not one can be found in our herds.

This milk, fresh from the cow, is placed in a vacuum. And a moderate heat, because of the vacuum, throws off the water in steam.

Thus we throw off two-thirds of the water, and the milk that results is as thick as thick cream. When you replace this water you have a multiplied bulk, as rich as the richest milk.

Delicious Milk Dishes

Van Camp's is superb milk for cooking. The richness and flavor is twice that of raw milk.

For milkman's milk separates. The butter fat rises and the solids fall. From no part of the can do you get the whole milk.

Then it separates farther after you get it. So, the milk usually used for cooking is rarely more than a half milk.

Van Camp's is whole milk. The taste of one milk dish will be sufficient to make you a constant user.

Vastly Economical

Van Camp's costs ten cents per pint by the can, and less by the case. When reduced to the richness of milkman's milk, it costs about six cents per quart.

It is cheaper than milkman's milk, because of the saving on the cost of delivery.

But the main saving comes in the saving of waste. With Van Camp's, no milk is left over. You open a can when you want it, and it keeps till you use it up.

And you never run short, for you have the cow in the pantry. Rich milk or cream for any purpose all the time. You don't need to plan in advance.

Perfectly Sterile

Van Camp's Milk is sterilized after the cans are sealed. There is not a germ of any kind in it.

The slight almond flavor is due to this sterilization. It is the flavor of heated milk.

The result is a milk that is safe. Children can drink it without a thought of infection.

In the use of raw milk, infection at some time is almost inevitable. The infection may come from tubercular cows, from diseased milkmen, from uncleanly dairies, from the water used in washing cans.

Raw milk is more dangerous than raw meat, and the whole medical world protests against its use. Soon or late, all careful people must come to a sterilized milk like Van Camp's.

None is Like This

There are two reasons why Van Camp's Milk is the premier milk of its kind.

First, it is Holstein milk, with which no milk from mongrel cows compares. Second, it is reduced to the minimum. Every can will show 28 per cent solids—8 per cent butter fat.

Others may claim that inferior milk, only slightly reduced, is as good as Van Camp's. But millions know better.

In addition, there is condensed milk—almost half sugar. It is nothing at all like Van Camp's.

The modern way for preserving milk is sterilization, not sugar. It is folly to pay the milk price for sugar, and then get a milk too sweet for use in cooking.

Those who use inferior milk will eventually come to Van Camp's. The demand for the best has become so great that we now milk 25,000 cows daily.

The 16-oz. can of Van Camp's sells for 10 cents; the 6-oz. can for 5 cents. You get one-third more for your money in buying the larger cans. Our dairies are located in six states. The milk is sold by grocers everywhere.

COOLING AND REFRESHING

COOL, not ice-cold glass of beer is the most healthful and delicious refreshment. It is not a nerve stimulant as are many of the so-called "soft drinks," but a liquid food, obtaining through natural processes, the properties which nourish and refresh.

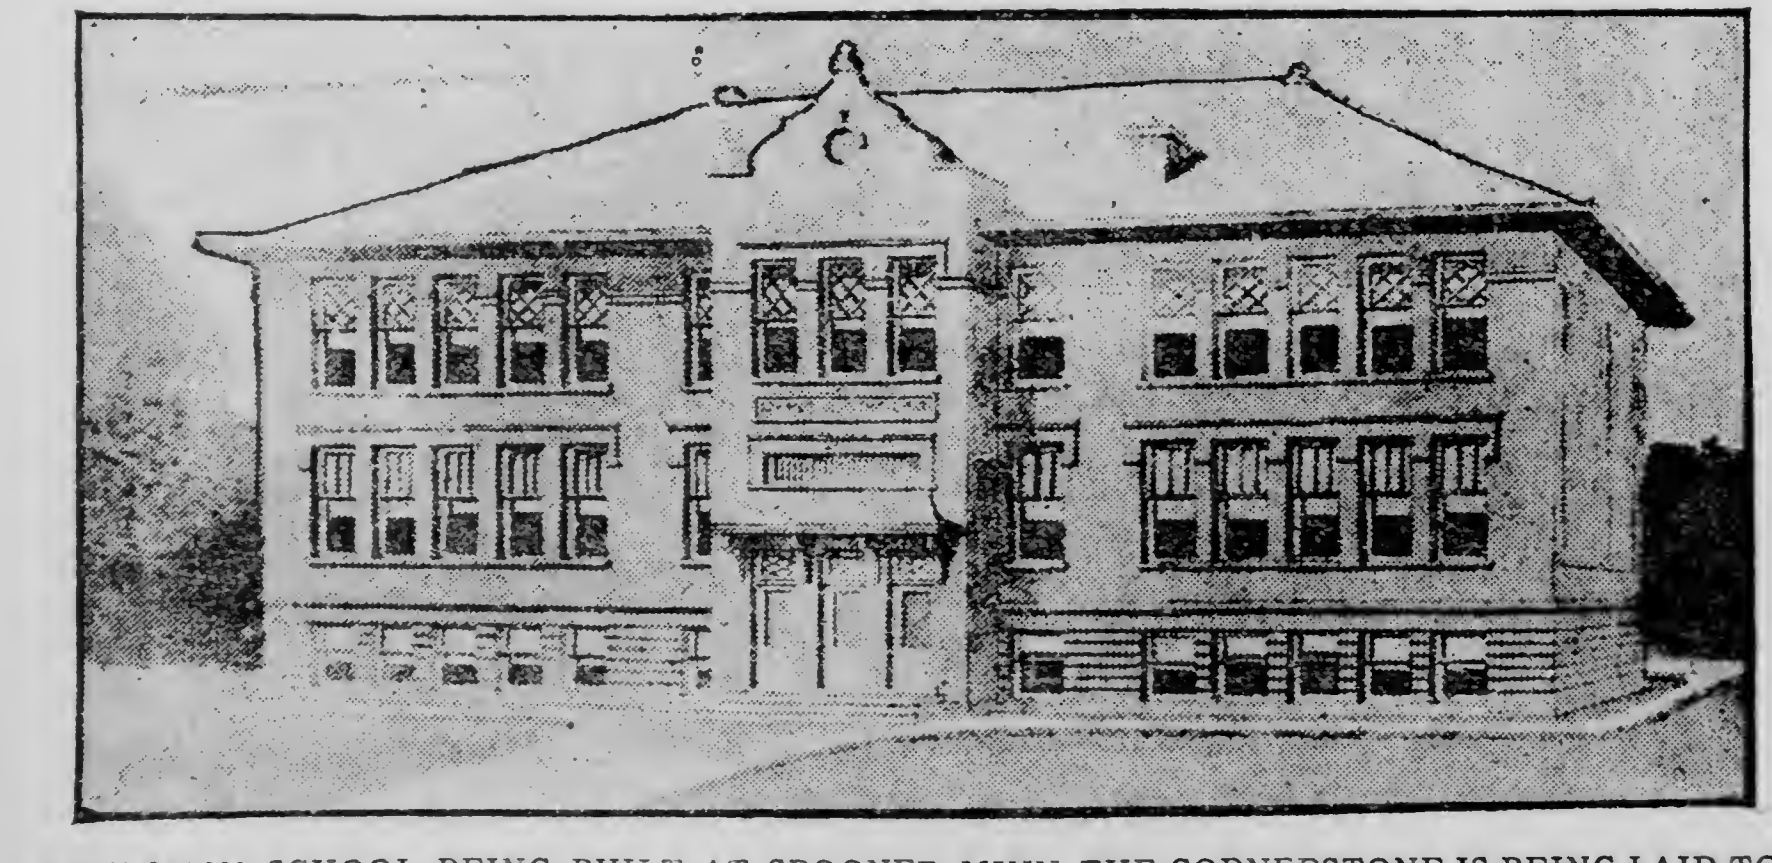

Prof. Dr. P. Bauer, Berlin, Germany, says: "Beer has a number of pleasant and valuable qualities. No other beverage contains such a combination of useful properties. The water of it quenches the thirst, the carbonic acid refreshes, the extracts are nutritious, the alcohol further digestion, the mineral salts build up the bones, and the extract of hops act as a tonic."

Fitger's Beer

TOMLINSON ON HER MAIDEN TRIP

New Steamer Reaches Duluth With Her Owner Aboard.

Given Noisy Reception By All Vessels in the Harbor.

Capt. J. J. H. Brown Says Strike Is a Dead Issue.

The steamer G. A. Tomlinson, which was launched at the Lorain shipyards of the American Shipbuilding company, July 10, arrived at the Duluth harbor this morning at 6:30 after a successful maiden trip. Despite the heavy fog, which was prevailing when the new giant carrier arrived, she was recognized as she entered the canal piers and the whistles along the harbor front gave her a noisy reception. She went directly to the Mesaba docks to take a cargo, and there the reception was even more enthusiastic. Deep-throated and high pitched steam whistles were raised in greeting and the ovation continued for several minutes after the big freighter had taken her position under the chutes.

On board the new freighter was Capt. J. J. H. Brown of Buffalo, principal owner of the boat, and one of the best known shipmen on the lakes. (Continued on page 12, fifth column.)

FEW KILLED BY CANNONADING

Moors Suffer Little Loss of Life--Envoys Said to Seek Peace.

Madrid, Aug. 13.—All the vessels of the Spanish navy have received orders to hold their fire until the Spanish army has been completely defeated. The Spanish army, which is now fighting the Moors, is suffering a little loss of life. Envoys are said to be seeking peace.

Melilla, Morocco, Aug. 13.—Friendly natives bring in reports that although the Spanish artillery fire is destroying the camps of the Moors, it is not causing great loss of life. As the fight has been a series of submarine snipers and passages under their locations in which they take refuge, emerging only when the cannonading is over.

The Moors made an attempt last night to cut the Spanish railroad. Searchlights, however, revealed their purpose and they were driven back. There is as yet no evidence here of the beginning of Gen. Marina's march into the interior.

Moors Send Messengers.—Two delegates from the Moors, who are negotiating the Spanish front of Melilla, have arrived here from that place. It is understood that their mission is to convey to the Spanish government the offer of a general truce. The truce would be for a period of 30 days, during which the Moors would be allowed to leave the Spanish front of Melilla.

PLUM DAY IN BEVERLY

Taft Begins Work on Distribution of Census Appointments.

Plays Golf and Names New Federal Marshal for Arizona.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 13.—President Taft did not allow the prospect of business this afternoon to interfere with his usual morning game of golf. While Secretary Sargent of the department of commerce and labor, Postmaster General Hitchcock and E. Dana Durand, director of the census, were hurrying toward Beverly today to take up with the chief magistrate the details of the appointment of more than 300 census takers to the various states and territories of the union, the president proceeded to take up the cudgels against Gen. Adolph Ames and W. J. Boardman of Washington. With the president went John Hayes Hammon, his personal secretary, and a number of other officials. At the beginning of today's match the score of Ames stood 2 to 0 in favor of Ames and Boardman. The brilliant blue skies and sunshine of the first four days of the week had given way today to leaden, cloudy and murky atmosphere, and the change of weather the president hoped for a change in luck.

SCALDED BY HOT WATER

Mrs. A. H. Stockman Is Horribly Burned While Washing Clothes.

Overtums Boiler on Herself--Burns May Prove Fatal.

As the result of the accidental overturning of a boiler containing scalding water at an early hour this morning, Mrs. A. H. Stockman of 318½ West Third street lies at St. Mary's hospital suffering from burns that may prove fatal.

Mrs. Stockman was most horribly burned, nearly the entire length of her body on the right side. Several doctors are working to relieve her pain, but her condition is very serious.

Mrs. Stockman was alone at the time the accident occurred. She was washing clothes in a boiler when it overturned, scalding her. The boiler was overturned by the weight of the clothes.

Mrs. Stockman is the wife of A. H. Stockman, who is employed as a driver by the American Express company. She is 33 years old.

OFFERS TERMS TO EMPLOYEES

Roach Makes Wage Proposal That May Head Off Chicago Strike.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Hopes for a settlement of the street car controversy were brightened today as the result of the offer made by John Roach, president of the Chicago railway company to the employees of that organization. The offer of Mr. Roach, which gives all present trainmen an immediate advance of 1 cent an hour in wages and guarantees upward to a maximum scale of 30 cents per hour at the expiration of two years, and which was practically accepted by President Quinn of the North and West street car men's union, is expected to be duplicated by President Mitten of the South side line.

The union officials regard this offer as a great victory. It is substantially what they have contended for and they declared now that they have been willing all along to give the railways two years to comply with their 30-cent demands.

Hitch Over Consolidated.—In the matter of new employees, however, the gain is not so great for the union. The new men are to begin at 14 cents an hour and advance 1 cent an hour each year for three years, when they are to get the maximum.

The only probable hitch in the way of an immediate settlement comes in the condition of the Consolidated traction company, which is in the hands of a receiver of the Chicago and North Western railway company. This line, which is employed on this line, and President Quinn of the union says that any agreement must include them. Some workers declared they could not say what wages should be given these men.

GOPHERS IN PRIZE LIST

Minnesotans Fare Well in Lottery for Opening of Land in Flathead Region.

Northwest Well Represented on First Day of Drawing for Choices.

Coeur d'Alene, Ida., Aug. 13.—Minnesota and Wisconsin fared exceptionally well in the drawing here yesterday for the opening of the Flathead lands to settlement, for out of the first 300 names of the 2,000 drawn the applicants from the Gopher state got seven numbers, and those from Badgerdom secured eight. As the choices for land in this drawing will fall to about one person in every fourteen enrolled, and as the land as a whole is of better quality than that in the Coeur d'Alene and Spokane districts, these winners stand a chance of getting some property that will be worth many times its present value within a few years.

Joseph Furay of Warsaw, Ind., was the winner of lucky No. 1. The $1,363 applications, each in a buff envelope, had been piled upon the platform, and Judge Witten announced that 2,000 would be drawn yesterday, 2,500 today and the rest on Saturday.

The first envelope was picked up by little Miss Donah of the name of the winner was greeted with a cheer. Thereafter the drawing became perfunctory. When the name of N. D. McCutcheon of Coeur d'Alene was announced as a winner of No. 134, a young lady in the crowd gave a hysterical shout.

Little William Leonard Dies as Result of Fractured Skull.

After lingering between life and death for nearly five days, and at no time unconscious, except at the very last, little 5-year-old William Leonard died at 5:30 this morning at the home of his grandparents, 1223 West Second street, as the result of injuries received while at play shortly before 6 o'clock Sunday evening.

A new barn is being erected behind the Leonard home, and it was while the little fellow was amusing himself with a playmate that the fatal accident occurred. It seems that the other had had climbed up into the barn loft, and that in trying to assist William, the latter slipped and fell to the ground.

He struck his head on a saw-horse at the bottom and fractured the base of the skull.

DAVIS SAYS ADAMS LIED

Deliberate Charges of Perjury Are Made in the Sutton Inquiry.

Sergeant de Hart Also Is Accused By Counsel for Mrs. Sutton.

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 13.—That Lieut. Adams not only was directly connected with the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton of the United States Marine corps, but that he lied in his testimony during the present inquiry into the case, was charged today by Attorney Henry E. Davis, counsel for Mrs. Sutton, whose efforts brought about the second investigation into her son's fate.

Mr. Davis also accuses Sergeant de Hart, another witness in this inquiry, of committing "the most flagrant perjury."

The session of the court of inquiry investigating the death of Lieut. Sutton reached its concluding stage today. Mr. Davis summed up the case, and the announcement of the judge advocate that he would present no argument placed upon Mr. Davis, the latter said, an unexpected burden. Mr. Davis said he would review the testimony only in the briefest manner.

Mr. Davis went back to the coming of Lieut. Sutton to Annapolis, and tried to show that Adams, who was supposed to be a "mother's offering" to the country's service. He referred to the lieutenant's hopes and aspirations as shown by letters to the mother, and to the day prior to the tragedy and his companions, arguing that everything tended to negative the idea that Lieut. Sutton contemplated suicide. He criticized the composition of the original board of inquiry, where the recorder was Lieut. E. S. Davis, but for whose detection, Mr. Davis said, Lieut. Sutton might still be alive.

Showing Religious Side.—The board of inquiry, Mr. Davis said, acted with a religious side, with no notice to Lieut. Sutton's family, and placed upon the lieutenant the burden of suicide, thus denying Lieut. Sutton a Christian burial, according to the family tradition. He said that the board of inquiry had thus consigned Lieut. Sutton to an unconsecrated grave, stripping from the parents hope of a reunion hereafter with their son, as the parents were compelled to the belief that the son was dead.

The speaker alluded to the interview with Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. Rose Sutton Parker of St. Paul, Minn., had with her, and declared that she had been deceived by the son to eternal punishment.

NEW AMERICAN FLYING RECORD

Willard Goes Twelve Miles Across Country in 19 1-2 Minutes.

Mineola, L. I., Aug. 13.—What is said to be a record for a cross country distance flight for an aeroplane in this country was made by C. Foster Willard in the Golden Flyer today when he covered twelve miles in 19½ minutes. Much longer circular flights have been made by the Wrights, however, and longer cross-country flights have been made abroad.

Mr. Willard, who has been making short flights almost daily in the machine belonging to the Aeronautic society, started from Mineola at 5:26 a. m. today in an attempt to make a new world's record. Cross-country flight, his route lay around a regular square and carried him from Mineola over Garden City, Westbury and Hicksville and back to Mineola, a distance of fourteen miles.

Coming Down Too Soon.—Leaving Mineola, Willard sailed the machine about 100 feet in the air, and going off at a fast clip, his machine was quickly a speck on the horizon. Soon he disappeared behind the trees, and the watchers waited expectantly, growing larger every minute, and the machine was seen again, this time beginning to glide slowly downward and then landing in a field between Mineola and Westbury, about two miles from Mineola. The machine was undamaged, but the magnet was damaged. On his flight Willard passed over several sets of telegraph wires and groves of trees.

The machine was returned to Mineola, where the trouble with the magnet will be remedied.

SHOT BY SON IS JURY'S VERDICT

Duluth Boy Held on Murder Charge.

BJORN OSTBY.

BJORN OSTBY.

STATEMENT FROM OSTBY

Lad Says That He Cannot Remember Shooting His Father.

Picked Up Rifle and Then His Mind Became Blank.

This is the most important part of the statement obtained today from Bjorn Ostby, in full awaiting trial for the murder of his father Wednesday night. It was made to Doctors Webster and Cheney, physicians for the state, while Ostby was under the impression that they represented the defense. The examination had proceeded for some time when the boy found out to whom he was talking, and he was greatly disturbed by the discovery.

Ostby stated that his mother and father had had words on the subject of his brother's unpaid bill at supper. He and his father had spoken of the matter afterwards, he said, but that there had been no quarrel immediately preceding the shooting or for some time previous. His father's last words to him were in his usual brusque and in a general way, "Go to bed."

Ostby said that he went into his room and was sitting on his bed for ten minutes or about that, brooding over his father's treatment to him. He then went into his father's room and on the rifle leaning against the wall in the corner. He dimly remembers seeing the weapon. Then everything went blank, and when next he came to himself his father was lying on the floor dead. Then he telephoned for the police.

He said he did not remember going to his father's room.

CHINESE DISCUSS MANCHURIA PLAN

Formal Protests Against the Course of Japan Are Sent to Powers.

Peking, Aug. 13.—A special meeting of the grand council, at which all the councilors were present, was held at midnight last night to discuss Manchurian affairs.

On account of the decision of China to reopen negotiations with Japan at the end of the month, the grand council, the other Manchurian questions with Japan, has resigned. The government is considering the appointment to this office of Chao Erh-Hsun, formerly governor of Mukden.

A formal protest and statement of China's position in the Manchurian affair has been sent to Washington and to other capitals, in which China maintains that she is being deprived of rights accorded her by treaty, and calls upon the world powers to support her in her contention with the government at Tokyo.

SHOT BY SON IS JURY'S VERDICT

Coroner's Inquest Held on the Body of John G. Ostby.

Lad Probably Fired Second Shot to End Father's Agony.

Went to Room and Loaded Gun After First Time.

"We find that John G. Ostby came to his death by two gunshot wounds, which penetrated the brain, and which were fired from a gun in the hands of one Bjorn Ostby, who, by evidence, admitted he did the shooting."

The coroner's jury, sitting in the case of John G. Ostby, who was murdered by his son, Bjorn, Wednesday evening, returned the above verdict this morning. The inquest was held at Durkan & Crawford's undertaking rooms and began at 10 a. m.

None of the Ostby family were present. Dr. Robert Graham, who conducted a post mortem examination over the remains of the dead man; John M. Schuler, who occupies with his family the lower floor of the house in which the murder occurred, at 525 East Sixth street, and Detective Irvine, who, with Detective Schuler, arrested young Ostby shortly after the crime was committed, were the only witnesses examined. They testified as to the position of the body when found, the nature of the wounds, and the words and actions of Bjorn when arrested.

The following six men composed the jury: J. W. Rowley, A. E. Jackson, Frank Bennett, Detective Smith, Peter Magner and J. Schleusener.

Although Chief of Police Troyer was not called upon to testify at the inquest, he brought out a new fact in connection with the murder this morning. He expressed the belief that after the son had fired the first shot he became going through with it, as a result of the bullet wound, and returned to his own room, returning the scene.

TWICE IN SAME PLACE

E. E. Esterly Is Again Arrested for Obstructing Superior Street.

E. E. Esterly, the jeweler, who was arrested earlier in the week upon a charge of blocking the street, by allowing his automobile to stand in front of his store in the Spalding hotel building, was again arrested last evening, when he refused to obey the orders of a policeman to drive his horse away from in front of the store.

The jeweler was much wrought up over the fact that the police held him an hour before releasing him, although he claims to have been ready to furnish bail in any amount. He says Sergeant Kenna told him that the order was not to release him on bail. After an hour's wait, Mr. Esterly was released on his own recognizance, after promising that he would be in municipal court at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

The police say the space directly in front of Esterly's store is needed to allow teams and automobiles to be driven up to the entrance.

A few minutes before 9 o'clock last evening a policeman told Mr. Esterly to remove his horse and buggy from in front of the store. Mr. Esterly refused, and he was arrested half an hour later, and taken to the police station.

In explaining the reason for holding Mr. Esterly for an hour at the station, Chief Troyer said:

"Sergeant Kenna had orders not to release Mr. Esterly until he promised to leave the space directly in front of the hotel, along the curb open to traffic, and not block it with his automobile or horse. Instructions were that he was to be released without bail in-mediately upon making such a promise. I believe he refused for an hour to make that promise, and so was not released."

When arraigned in municipal court this morning, charged with blocking the street, William Esterly pleaded not guilty. His hearing was set for 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, the same hour that he will be tried on the first charge.

WEST END HOT AFTER PAVEMENT

The West End Business Men Want Grand Avenue Improved.

Will Join Hands With the West Duluth Commercial Club.

Agitation will be continued by the members of the West End Commercial club for the improvement of Grand avenue west, a matter which has been hanging fire before the West Duluth Commercial club for the past two years. West end business men are of the opinion that co-operation between the two commercial clubs will lead to quicker results.

West Third street is the main traveled thoroughfare between Duluth and West Duluth and most of the traffic between the two sections of the city passes over this road. The sentiment in the western part of the city is to have the pavement laid from between Thirty-ninth and Fifty-fifth avenues west. Part of this stretch between Thirty-ninth and Fifty-fifth avenues west was improved several years ago by macadamizing the north half of it but the street is now out of repair.

The street is graded from Twentieth to Thirty-ninth avenues west. The idea of the West end business men as well as the members of the West Duluth Commercial club, is to lay a good and durable pavement along the whole distance, making the street serviceable and lasting. It is now in bad condition even for the summer months. The tracks on the West Third street car line are being widened now. New rails and a solid roadbed, the old track is being put back in shape for many years' use. When these improvements are finished, it is understood that a petition will be circulated asking the city to take action to have the street paved. It has been suggested that committees from the West end and West Duluth Commercial clubs work together on the matter.

FREE CONCERT.

Third Regiment Band Will Play at Lincoln Park.

West end people will have an opportunity on Sunday to listen to another of the free open air concerts by the Third Regiment band at Lincoln park providing the weather man does not put a damper on the plans. That have been made. When these improvements are finished, it is understood that a petition will be circulated asking the city to take action to have the street paved. It has been suggested that committees from the West end and West Duluth Commercial clubs work together on the matter.

OUTING IS POSTPONED.

Friday the Thirteenth Brings Foggy Weather for Picnickers.

Sunday school children of the two Episcopal churches of the West end did not care to hold a picnic on a foggy day, especially when it fell on the Friday, the thirteenth, so the annual outing of the Sunday school children of the St. Peter's Swedish and St. Luke's Episcopal churches of the West end, the Trinity and Park Point churches, was called off this morning. The affair at Fond du Lac, which is held here a nice day for the affair as there is to be a good program of sports.

Funeral Date Not Set.

Funeral services for Mrs. J. O. Milne, whose death occurred yesterday, have not yet been set. The services will be held from the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west, and First street with Rev. Loughbridge officiating.

VAN SANT COMMANDER

Minnesotan Elected Head of Grand Army of the Republic.

Change Is Made in System of Choosing Vice Commander.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 12.—Samuel L. Van Sant, former governor of Minnesota, was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic last evening. Van Sant won over William A. Ketcham of Indiana by a vote of 157 to 156.

Mrs. Jennie L. Berry of Des Moines, Iowa, won in a fight for the national president of the Woman's Relief corps after three ballots had been taken. She was elected over Mrs. Belle Harris of Kansas by a vote of 123 to 90.

The Grand Army's order of business did not provide for the election of officers yesterday, but the increasing departures of delegates warned the committee that an early choice would be necessary to secure a full expression of the will of the majority.

In addition to Commander Van Sant, the following officers were elected: Senior vice commander, W. M. Bostaph, Oregon; junior vice commander, Judge Alfred Beers, Bristol, Conn.; surgeon general, W. H. Lemmon, Will Adjutant Saturday.

Preparatory to final handclasp tomorrow, the delegates to the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, and its affiliated organizations were engaged today in gathering together loose threads of business.

The Grand Army was to elect a national chaplain, and the delegates had before them the names of Daniel Beier of Indianapolis and Thomas Harlow of New York. It was also to make a choice between St. Louis and Atlanta City as a meeting place next summer.

An effectual attempt was made yesterday to abolish the custom of electing a senior vice commander from the department acting as host of the encampment. The principal attack on precedent was made by R. B. Heath, commander of the Department of Pennsylvania. After hearing his contention that the smaller department might not always be able to supply a man capable of acting as commander in the event of the disability of the commander-in-chief, the convention elected W. M. Bostaph, Utah.

Daughters Elect President. Resolutions affecting congressional legislation were in the hands of the committee today, and were scheduled to be reported before the day's work was done.

In ratifying the nominations made yesterday, the Daughters of Veterans elected Annie Trevelick Gifford of Alling, Ohio, president, to succeed Clara F. Hoover, who declined a renomination.

START WORK NEXT WEEK

Contract Is Let for the New Fifteen-Story Alworth Building.

Langquist & Illsley of Chicago Will Build Duluth Skyscraper.

The contract was let yesterday to Langquist & Illsley of Chicago for the construction of the fifteen-story Alworth building on the south side of Superior street, just west of Third avenue west. Work on the destruction of the two-story building now standing on the site will begin immediately and the contract calls for the completion of the new building by May 1, 1910.

The building will be of modern steel construction and will be the finest office building in the city, towering over all of those now on Superior street. It will be fireproof and the plans and specifications include the most modern ideas on the construction of high office buildings.

The first floor of the building will be given over to the Northern National bank and the upper floors will be divided into office suites. Leases have already been signed for a large part of the building and nearly all of the space will be engaged before it is ready for occupancy.

SHOT BY SON IS

JURY'S VERDICT

of the murder when he heard Mr. Ostby fall to the floor, and finishing his work with a carefully-directed second shot, which would have caused instant death if the man had not been already dead. The chief bases this opinion on the fact that one of the two empty cartridges fired was found in the boy's room, several steps from the other man's room, while the second cartridge was still in the gun when it was taken in charge by the police, indicating that after the first shot Bjorn went to his own room, and drew out the empty cartridge, later returning to the scene of the shooting and discharging the other cartridge.

Coroner McGuire was in charge of the inquest, and County Attorney John Norton conducted the examination of the body for the state. Albert Bullwin, retained as attorney for young Ostby, was also present, and made questions to ask of the witnesses. Mr. Norton first called Dr. Graham to the stand.

The doctor testified that he visited the Ostby home and saw the body of the murdered man before it was disturbed by the police or coroner. He described the room by saying it was perhaps six feet wide, by ten or twelve feet in length. The door was latched with the head towards one window, and away from the door, standing at the foot of the bed, the doctor saw the man had fallen in the opposite direction when the bullet had come, although he did not fall until a few moments after the first shot, said the witness, as was shown by bloody stains about the room and on the bookcase.

Two Bullet Wounds. Dr. Graham asserted that there were two bullet wounds in the head. One, uncalculated, he said, entered the side of the head, above and behind the ear, penetrating the brain and coming out through the face, just below the right eye, close beside the nose. The other entered the head at an angle, first striking under the right jaw, and, after passing through the head, lodging in the skull just to the left of the middle line on the back of the head. The bullet was smashed to fragments on the bone. Either wound would have proven fatal, said the doctor.

The only powder marks were around the wound on the jaw, where the second bullet must have entered, for the reason that the shot that was fired when the body was lying prone upon the floor, as the bullet could not have followed the path it did had Mr. Ostby been in any other position. This testimony, linked with the statement of Chief Trower that Bjorn went to his room after the first shot, later returning to make sure his father was dead, shows how relentlessly in earnest the young man was in his desire and intention to kill the father. The testimony of Dr. Graham proved that the first shot was fired from the door of the room, for there were no powder marks around the first wound, but the second must have been fired when the muzzle of the gun must have been held within a very few inches of the head of the prostrate man. Thus it is seen that young Ostby, presumably after hearing his father fall, made haste to the door of the room, fired the barrel of his rifle, then left his own room and went to that of his father, seeking the prostrate form. He must have according to the testimony, approached it and having the muzzle of his gun close to the man's face, taken careful aim and fired. The fact it appears was quite collected during the whole affair, else he could not have calculated the course of the bullet with such exactness. The second bullet was really unnecessarily, according to Graham, and there was a good chance that Mr. Ostby was dead when the second shot was fired.

House Came From Fall.

"There was also a bullet over the left eye," said the witness. "This probably resulted from Mr. Ostby striking the wall something when he fell. The last bullet wound undoubtedly would have immediately fatal on any person, and the first might prove almost immediately fatal. The man could hardly have survived it, and may have been dead when it was fired."

The indications, when I arrived at the Ostby home, were that the man had become afflicted with nausea after being struck by the first bullet. There were blood marks on the floor, and on the bookcase the marks showed that he had vomited. He evidently remained on his feet a few moments before falling. His face was entirely shaved. He might have been dead even before he struck the floor."

John M. Schuler, who occupies the lower floor of the house in which the shooting occurred, the Ostbys living upon the upper floor, said he was home all the evening with the exception of about twenty minutes, when he visited St. Mary's hospital to see a friend. He expressed the belief that the shooting occurred while he was away from the house, for when he returned the detectives were there. He said he visited the room of the murdered man with the detectives, and testified that Dr. Graham's description of the position of

Lincoln Pennies

Direct From the Mint.

Have you seen the new Lincoln 1-cent pieces? Not likely, because the first to arrive in Duluth are now in our safe, and will be given out in change to our customers on Saturday.

So scarce are these pennies that it was with the greatest difficulty that our New York representative secured even the 2500 which he forwarded to us. They are being sold in the streets of New York city, 3 for 5c by hundreds of men and boys.

We have only 2,500 in all—And on Saturday, while they last, one penny will be given to every customer who has pennies in change. We want to give all patrons of the store a chance to get one, hence the reason for limiting them to one penny.

Remember, there has been but a limited number of pennies sent to every four citizens of the United States, and that already, a few days from date of coinage, they are selling at a premium.

THE SCOUTS FLOCK HERE

Bemus Pierce of the St. Paul Club Is Looking Over the Sox.

Armour of Toledo and 'Ducky' Holmes Are Also Coming.

Bemus Pierce, catcher on Mike Kelly's St. Paul team, is here today to look over the playing of several members of the Duluth team. Kelly has heard some very good things about some of the members of the local team and he has sent Pierce up to take a nearup look at the work of the men in question.

Pierce is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, being the same Pierce, who caught Al Cummings and Charley Chech, when the two twiflers were attending the Badger institution. Pierce caught, for Kelly's team when the Apostles bagged two pennants in the A. A. and until recently has been playing on the Pacific coast.

According to Pierce, the managers in the A. A. are hustling after young players. They are hard to get, Pierce says, and never before in the history of baseball has the competition for youngsters promising ability been so keen. Pierce saw part of the game yesterday and will go out again this afternoon to get another view of some of the players he has his eye on.

The future in the American association is a hummer, according to Pierce, and at the present moment it looks like Minnesota. At the close of some of the minor league seasons it is expected that a number of youngsters will be tried out in the American association. St. Paul will probably try out a number of young players, and the scouts of the various American association teams are on the trail of them at the present time.

Armour of Toledo is expected here today or tomorrow. He is scouting the smaller leagues with a fine tooth comb in search of youngsters to bolster up his team for next season. Fred Sullivan may also return to Duluth for another look at the Sox. Coniskey is after youngsters, for it is a well known fact that the Sox are going back, because of the presence of so many veterans who have begun to slow up, and Sullivan may look over one or two of the locals.

'Ducky' Holmes, the old White Sox star, and at the present time a manager in the Western, is expected here the present week.

EAST AND WEST MEET IN FIELD

Big Athletic Meet Starts at Seattle Exposition Stadium Today.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 13.—Athletes from the country over gathered at the Alaska-Yukon exposition stadium today for the opening of the Amateur Athletic union's annual championship track and field games. With the pick of the East, competing against the pick of the West, the contest promises to be the greatest ever held on this coast. The meet was scheduled to start at 2:30 p. m. Pacific coast time. Today the junior athletes exhibited their strength and speed.

Sensational performances are looked for throughout the meet. In the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash and the three-fourth-mile runs, particularly, contests are expected. For the 100-yard dash W. F. Dawbarn, the Princeton crack, was pitted against E. C. Nelson of Boston. C. Forline, the champion of the Mississippi valley, Oliver Houston, the undefeated University of Oregon captain, Ralph Capron of Minneapolis, and Courtney and Jack Nelson of Seattle.

The running high jump was expected to develop a new celebrity in sports. Egon Erickson of the Mothaven Athletic club, New York, has beaten Harry Porter, the Olympic champion, four times in competition. He will have to jump against Johnny Nicholson of the Missouri Athletic club and a number of lesser lights.

WILL PLAY TWO GAMES.

Patriot Team to Play Off Two Postponed Contests.

The F. A. Patriot baseball team will play two games Saturday afternoon. The contest with the Wolvin team will begin at 2:30, and the Board of Trade team will be taken on at 4.

The Patriot team has been playing good ball this season. They have already clinched second place in the commercial league, and if they had hit their pace earlier in the season it is possible they would have won the title. The team is made up of the following players: Manager, J. W. Fred Judge; pitcher, Rudy Boreman; catcher, Albert Schaefer; New Jersey; following the election of officers, many of the foreign service delegates.

There was no trouble experienced along the way except with the tires. Pathfinder Powers and Facemaster McLeod were both obliged to drop to the rear on this account and Dr. Madison acted as rascemaker and pathfinder when the party reached here.

Rain Stops Play.

Sioux City, Iowa, Aug. 13.—Play in the tri-state tennis tourney was delayed by rain this morning. ## WORSE THAN DESCRIBED

H. T. Swart Had a Thrilling Experience on Port Arthur Streets.

Says Conditions There Were Not Exaggerated in Least.

H. T. Swart, a guest of the St. Louis, who came down from Port Arthur this morning on the steamer America, says that half has not been told of the strike of the freight handlers at Port Arthur, and Port William. Mr. Swart has a personal experience that forcibly impressed the seriousness of the strike on his mind.

When going to the steamer Huronic Mr. Swart was driven back to his hotel by the shots of the strike sympathizers. A small boy approached Mr. Swart, who was waiting down one of the main streets of Port Arthur with his suit case.

"Look out, Mister, they are going to fire," excitedly called the small boy. Mr. Swart innocently asked the boy what building they were going to set on fire, never dreaming that he referred to the firing of guns and revolvers.

Just then a volley was let loose and Swart says he broke several records getting to his hotel. He gave his suit case to the boy and instructed him to beat it back to the hotel. He took the side street to his hotel, wondering if some one was going to take a shot at him.

The drayman who attempted to get Mr. Swart's trunk from the storage shed, is in the hospital at the present time, according to the statement of Mr. Swart. His name is Whalen, and he put up a fight, but was badly beaten by the men creating so much lawlessness in the Canadian port.

The only way that Mr. Swart could get his trunk out of the freight shed, was to hire a party man, who possessed diplomacy as well as cool courage. A delegation of fifteen of the freight handlers went along with this man to examine the trunk. When they were satisfied that the trunk was not he moved from the shed to the steamer America.

Mr. Swart says the men who are sympathizing with the strikers are the fellows who are raising the most trouble.

STRIKE-BREAKERS ARE TAKEN IN THROUGH FOG.

Sheriff Humbert today resumed the eviction of the strikers' families. He is being aided by twenty-five negroes.

MURDERER KILLED IN FIGHT IN JAIL

Attacks Two Keepers and Is Shot Down By a Third.

Newark, N. J., Aug. 12.—After a murderous attack with a fall-made stiletto on two keepers in the county prison here today, Angelo Caprio, awaiting trial on a charge of murder, was shot and instantly killed by a third keeper, who had come to the rescue.

Caprio had been making a disturbance in the cell and keeper Matthew Smith and John Bryant started to remove him to another part of the prison. The two keepers had no sooner opened the cell door than Caprio attacked them, using a long piece of stuff wire that had been used as a chair brace and which he had sharpened until it had a point like a stiletto. Bryant was stabbed several times in the neck and body. Caprio then turned on Smith and stabbed him in the hand. Attracted by the commotion, John Conly, another keeper, rushed up and tried to close in on Caprio. The Italian turned viciously on Conly, but the latter, drawing a revolver, put four bullets into Caprio's body.

FOUR NOW IN COLONY

St. Louis County's List of Alleged Murderers Is Growing.

Ostby Joins Barilla, Schreiber and Rossi in County Jail.

With the addition of Bjorn Ostby, the alleged parricide, the murder colony at the county jail has now grown to four, the largest number for over six years. At one time there were six men charged with the wilful slaughter of their fellow creatures in the local jail and at that time one of them was hanged, two drew long sentences, and the other three got off free.

The alleged murderers in the jail now are very educated prisoners. Ostby and Schreiber are well dressed and as well groomed as prison discipline will permit, and are in every way superior appearing. Barilla is a high school student, and, in fact, is the coolest man in the lot. His extreme coolness and apparently perfectly sane demeanor make it exceedingly difficult to realize that he is about to be tried for the murder of his father.

William Schreiber, now facing a sentence of murder in the first degree, with hanging, or a possible life imprisonment before him, is at last beginning to lose hope. During the last few days he has expressed himself as being exceedingly doubtful as to whether Judge Dillel will act favorably on his attorney's motion for a new trial. For months Schreiber has been feeling the hangman's noose about his neck, and spending the rest of his days in a black barred suit, but now, after a year and a half behind the bars, he is beginning to break down.

The Italians, Pasquale Barilla and Mike Rossi, are more demonstrative and have alternate periods when their hopes are high and when they are despondent. Barilla is facing a twelve-year sentence, from which there appears to be no appeal. The jail colony is expecting to lose him from their number any day now, and will break for freedom he will be taken to Stillwater where he will atone by twelve weary years of hard labor. At the moment of passion when he struck down Caspar Zumbarella in the heat of a quarrel.

Schreiber's crime was the murder of Frank Massapust in his lonely shack on the main, and the subsequent setting fire to the murdered man's shack to conceal traces of the crime. The chief witnesses at the trial were men who had seen Schreiber enter the shack on the night of the murder. They swore that Schreiber carried a package and shaking and went with them to the burning shack. For some time before the trial in the snow about the place. When they passed a certain window Schreiber pointed in through smoke and flames, which rendered everything inside invisible to the others, and indicating the exact spot where Massapust's body was hidden.

Subsequently Schreiber passed a time check belonging to Massapust, in a Wisconsin bank, and it was in connection with this crime that he was first arrested.

Schreiber has been in the jail since May 1, 1908. Pasquale Barilla was arrested June 2 of this year. Rossi joined the colony on Aug. 10, and Ostby was brought in yesterday at noon.

ROBBERS' VICTIM IS GETTING WELL

Man Shot Through Abdomen Saved By His Vigorous Life.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Butler of White Bear, who was shot through the abdomen by Robert Pohl, who robbed the bank in that village, is getting along so well at St. Joseph's hospital that there is little doubt of his recovery. The critical stage has been passed, said J. A. Quinn, the attending physician, today.

His recovery is attributed to the fact that he had led an out of door existence on White Bear lake for many years and that he has become hardened through his life as a fisherman. At the time he was injured it was said he could not recover.

"MURDERERS SHOULD BE TAUGHT, NOT HANGED"

Theosophy Would Not Tolerate Death Penalty, Says Mrs. Besant.

Refuses to Make Any Reply to the Circular Attacking Her.

MRS. ANNIE BESANT.

"The three principles of theosophy that should appeal to every mind are the brotherhood of man, reincarnation, and the application of the law which must govern all life."

So said Mrs. Annie Besant the head of the theosophical society of the world who arrived in the city this noon, and gave an interview a few minutes later at her apartments at the Spaulding.

The fact of reincarnation was applied it would change modern society entirely," said Mrs. Besant. "Then instead of regarding a criminal as a thing to be hanged, he would be regarded as he is in fact, a young soul, a child in reality, who is not taught and instructed and disciplined to prepare for life. Not given his liberty, but he is not prepared for life, but not to have him prepared and without learning the lessons which he should have known in his present life, and then to apply to the lowest type of criminal, the clever and educated criminal, might be another problem, but with the belief in reincarnation, there would not be any phases of its existence without doing all in society's power to remedy for the lessons of this phase. Then too, the lessons of this phase, large cities would be done away with, for people would realize that under conditions in which he should have known in his present life, and then to apply to the lowest type of criminal, the clever and educated criminal, might be another problem, but with the belief in reincarnation, there would not be any phases of its existence without doing all in society's power to remedy for the lessons of this phase. MIGHT AS WELL SELL MORE AMERICAN FLOUR.
Washington, Aug. 13.—Just why more European bone and tissue is not nourished with American flour is the problem that Special Agent M. H. Davis of the department of commerce and labor tried to solve in investigations reported on in a bulletin, which has just been prepared for the public. American flour, made from American wheat, he says, is better to eat than that of any other country. What millers must do to enlarge the consumption of American flour, he adds, is "to rise to the occasion of meeting the requirements of the foreign market, and further impress upon Europe the merit which actually attaches to the American product."
A few not different changes will accomplish this, in his opinion.

Duluth Longshoremen Seem to Be Contented With Their Lot.

Soldiers Are Searching Homes of the Strikers for Firearms.
Fort William, Ont., Aug. 13.—There are fifteen wounded in the hospitals and several in the homes as a result of yesterday's shooting. The presence of the militia in the strike district all night had the desired effect and there were no disorders. The strikers were dispersed with the arrival of the soldiers. The regular soldiers arrived here from Winnipeg at 4 o'clock this morning and relieved the militia soldiers at 6 o'clock. Each soldier is armed with 300 rounds of ammunition, and under the experienced direction of Col. Steele, who was in charge of South African constabulary for three years following the close of the Boer war, it is felt that the situation is well in hand.

BOATS COLLIDE IN WHITE FISH BAY
Morrell Is Badly Damaged By Phipps in Thick Fog.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—During a fog this morning the steamers Daniel J. Morrell and Henry Phipps collided in Whitefish bay. The Phipps was coming down, loaded, and the Morrell was bound, light. Both boats were running under checked speed in a fog so thick that they could not see each other. The Phipps plowed a hole in the port bow of the Morrell above the water line big enough to drive a team through and she returned to the Soo. Nobody was injured. Had the boats been going at full speed the Morrell probably would have been sunk. The damage is estimated at $20,000. It is not known who was to blame. The Phipps was only slightly damaged.

BIG FIGHT OVER WILL

New York to Witness Great Contest for Fifty Million.
Six Seek the Estate Which Louis Gordon Hammesley Inherited.

New York, Aug. 13.—A legal fight with more than $50,000,000 for the victors is to be waged in the courts of New York city. The fortune which is to be the basis for this bitter struggle was accumulated years ago by Andrew Gordon Hammesley, a banker. It is now held in trust for a boy of 16, who is unaware that he is the heir to this vast estate.

This boy is Louis Gordon Hammesley, the first male Hammesley after the death of his cousin, Louis G. Hammesley. He is an unassuming chap who plays about his father's mansion at Fifth avenue and Eighty-fourth street, or on the campus of St. Mark's private school at Southboro, Mass., oblivious of the fact that already a half dozen claimants have come forward to dispute his right to enjoy the Hammesley millions.

A Woman One of the Contestants.

Mrs. James H. Shaw, M. D., of Huntington, L. I., has been added to the list of those who will try to break the $50,000,000 to the first male Hammesley. She said: "For an outsider to gain possession of all this wealth is an outrage to justice. The fortune came originally to Andrew Gordon Hammesley through Sarah Mason, whose niece I am. The son of Andrew and Sarah Hammesley was Louis C. Hammesley. He left the money to the son of J. Hooker Hammesley, a first cousin and no relation whatever to the Masons. That is the real estate. The papers in the suit to test the validity of Louis Hammesley's will were filed on July 28 in Manhattan. The fight will take place there. We have contemplated bringing suit for many years, but there have been many delays. We are informed by the best of legal authorities that the prior claims of the next of kin will defeat the claims of Louis Gordon Hammesley.

Like a tale of fiction is the bare recital of the details connected with the history of the Hammesley treasure. John Mason, the founder of the Chemical bank, the richest in this city, started the golden ball rolling. His wealth was passed along to his children and grandchildren, of whom Sarah Mason was one. She was married to Andrew Gordon Hammesley, who multiplied the money by wise business tactics.

Andrew was the father of Louis C. Hammesley, and many years before his death he exacted a promise from the young son that when death claimed him the millions should go to the "first male Hammesley." Louis promised in order to please his father and then started to tour the world, seeking to satisfy his wanderlust.

Met His Fate in Washington.

He went no further than Washington before he discovered what was to him the most beautiful thing in the world. This was Lillian Warren Price, U. S. N. Her beauty and talent had already dazzled the youths of the national capital to her feet and was soon to dazzle the youth of the King James court. She was in turn a duchess and the wife of Lord Beresford. Louis Hammesley, forgoing his trip to the Antipodes, he wooed Miss Price, and finally winning her to consent to marriage while they were on the way to Europe. They became man and wife in 1880 and lived together happily until his death in 1882. In accordance with the vow he had made the young man willed the bulk of $50,000,000 to the first male Hammesley, providing that his beautiful wife should have the life use of the income. Four years later, when the duke of the eighth duke of Marlborough she was receiving and spending annually an income of about $1,000,000.

Immediately after her marriage to the duke, they moved to Blenheim castle, one of the famous old strongholds of England. Here she expended $500,000 in an "ecclesiastic" attempt to make the residence modern. The reign of this "woman of romance" in this place was short. The death of her husband forced her to retire to Deepden in Dorset, where she spent a small fortune in establishing a new home. Three years after the death of the duke she wedded her third and last husband, Lord William Beresford. He died last January, leaving one son, William Warren de La Four Beresford, the issue of this union. When this child was born, Lady Beresford, realizing that the millions of her husband would not descend to her son, began to save a part of her income. She announced that she would leave him a fortune as the result of her thrift.

The sincerity of her purpose was demonstrated when she died last January, leaving young Beresford her savings of $500,000. Her death at once stirred up the old contention for the possession of the principal of her first husband's estate which had more than doubled since his death in 1883. "The first male Hammesley" since her husband's death has proved to be the son of J. Hooker Hammesley, a first cousin. To this boy, in accordance with the terms of his second cousin's will, will be turned over in trust the bulk of the estate.

No Luxuries for Them.
 When J. Hooker Hammesley died he left the bulk of his estate in minute detail how his son and daughter should be reared. The most important feature of these orders was that neither the boy or the girl should be told by anyone until their majority that they were heirs to many millions. They have grown up in the Fifth avenue mansion without special luxuries, very much in the way the ordinary American child passes away the early years of life.

They have always been led to believe that Mrs. Sarah Lowerie, a family nurse, is the owner of the home and income which supports them. When Louis Gordon becomes 21 years he will be told that he is one of the richest men of that city, unless the cluster of claimants deprive him of his wealth by a successful trail to break the will of Louis C. Hammesley in the courts.

In addition to Mrs. Shaw, these claimants number five. They are nephews and nieces of Sarah Mason, the mother of Louis Hammesley. Those who will join with Mrs. Shaw in an attack upon the estate declare that there was an understanding among them that no attempt would be made to upset the will in the life of Lady Beresford.

Her relatives, who will be plaintiffs to the suit, include Amos Kent Mason of Waterville, N. Y.; John Mason of Saybrook, Conn.; Mrs. William J. Underhill of Greenwich, Conn.; Dr. William F. Mason of Troy, N. Y.; and Mrs. May Cutting of this city.

WANTS HER CHILDREN HAPPY

London Woman Left Will, Urging Them Not to Mourn.
 London, Aug. 13.—A curious condition is contained in the will, which has just been proved, of Dame Margaret Morrell Mackenzie, widow of the famous throat specialist. She wanted her children's happiness to be in no way interfered with by her death and in her will she wrote:

"When I die I hope my children will wear as little black for mourning as possible. White or mauve I like, but not black."

"And I hope they will not shut themselves up, but go out among their friends and to places of amusement."

CHINESE INFANT HIGHLY HONORED

Thousands of Dollars Spent in Celebrating Birth of Child.

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 13.—With all the pomp and circumstance of the Orient, the birth of a son to Wong You, head of the Ning Yung company, and probably the wealthiest and most influential Chinese merchant in the United States, has been celebrated in the Chinatown of Oakland and San Francisco during the past week.

So far, a sum exceeding $5,000 has been expended by the happy father in presents to his friends, and the little heir has been the recipient of gifts valued at many thousands of dollars. And the end is not yet, for when he has finished entertaining his numerous friends both here and in San Francisco he will be ready to begin again.

am not afraid of them forgetting me, but I want them to be happy."

also, Wong You will visit other cities of the state and give entertainments. Over 800 people have been the guests of Wong You and his wife during the past week. Three banquets have been given in Oakland, two to the male friends of the family and one by Mrs. Wong You to 50 of her female friends. Two banquets have been given to the family, and the rejoicings there will conclude with a large banquet given by Mrs. Wong You to her San Francisco acquaintances.

All week long sounds of revelry and feasting, together with the explosion of myriads of firecrackers and the strains of Chinese music, have been proceeding from San Francisco's and Oakland's two most exclusive Chinese restaurants, where the guests were served with every luxury beloved by the Oriental palate, and countless toasts to the little son's health have been drunk as an accompaniment to the good wishes for his welfare.

The youngster was born about a month ago, but, according to Chinese custom, a month must elapse before a child receives his name, upon which occasion gifts are presented to the little one and courtesies are exchanged between the parents and their friends. It is very seldom, however, that any Chinese child under the rank of a prince receives as many and as costly presents as did the little son of Wong You, when he received his name of Willie. Presents by the hundred, most of them in virgin gold, beloved of the Chinese, and amounting in value to many thousands of dollars, have been showered on the fortunate little fellow from all parts of the country. Prominent among them are a magnificent golden pin in the form of a star, the gift of the Chinese consul general, Hsu Chang, and a diamond as large as a silver, set in a gold brooch of magnificent workmanship; curious hand carved gold necklaces, with pendants fashioned by the utmost skill of the Chinese "lucky" charm, and the finest specimens obtainable of the Chinese "lucky" charm, and the finest pieces by the score, for placing on the border of the little caps worn by Chinese children; a large velvet-covered tray some two feet long and a foot wide, covered with gold and silver bracelets, beautifully carved, and another devoted to rings and pins.

brother's fellow officers to Lieut. Adams' brutal assertion of hatred of Adams for help only to remove the stigma of suicide from his brother's name. Mr. Davis said the only reason for the family was an inquiry into the case just closed, and he outlined the months of effort on the part of Adams' mother and sister to bring this about.

Refused for Mother. Mrs. Davis said the speaker said, grew with the delay. It was intensified by the refusal and disappointment, and turned into conviction which found expression in a determination, which could not, he said, be thought stronger.

Mr. Davis said the tragedy did not follow a drunken brawl; that Sutton's alleged former escapades shed no light, and that these and other subjects never should have been brought into the inquiry. The speaker sketched the events of the evening and night as shown by what he declared was uncontroverted facts, and criticized the following words in the finding of the first board of inquiry.

"From thorough investigation and from the evidence before it, which it believes is all the evidence procurable," Mr. Davis declared, "the board of inquiry found that the evidence showed there was no interval between the time of the fatal shooting and the time of the firing of the fatal shot."

Not to the Fighting. Mr. Davis declared that the facts that immediately preceded Sutton's death were not fought by Sutton, but by the others, who have on the witness stand acknowledged their participation in the fight. He pointed to the marked difference in the testimony of Lieut. Adams, Ostrom and others, and declared that Sutton, after going to camp and arriving himself for self-protection, returned toward the scene of the fight merely to recover some clothing.

The idea that Sutton killed himself because he thought he had killed Recker was ridiculed by Mr. Davis, who said the evidence showed there was no interval between the time of the fatal shooting and the time of the firing of the fatal shot.

Mr. Davis declared that parts of Lieut. Adams' testimony are pure invention, and pointed out conflicts in the testimony of Adams, Ostrom and others. He pointed to the contradictions in the testimony of others, and the evidence showed there was no interval between the time of the fatal shooting and the time of the firing of the fatal shot.

Taconite, Minn., Aug. 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is nearly thirty feet of water in the Holman pit, as a result of the heavy rains. One of the steam shovels is practically under water, only the top of the crane sticks out. All the pumps are working to keep the pit so it will be fit to work down there again.

All the roads around here are in a bad shape now. They are washed out several places and are all mud.

THAW TO GO BACK AUG. 18 (Continued from page 1.) have my commitment to Mattewson set aside.

Before Court of Appeals. The case before the court of appeals, to which Thaw referred, is one which has been under consideration for some time. It came before Justice Mills last October when Thaw applied for an order setting aside his commitment on the ground that the district judge had committed him without proof to issue such an order.

as Thaw at the time was not on trial on a question of sanity. At the same time, he asked to have the question of his sanity, condition submitted to a jury. When Justice Mills promptly denied this application, the case was carried to the appellate division, which sustained Justice Mills. Thaw's attorney has already made a second appeal, and it is now before the supreme court.

Thaw says his efforts will now be based. Last night Mrs. Thaw, after talking over the situation with her husband, wrote out the following statement for The Associated Press:

"Let no one imagine for a moment on reading this column that I am a sane man. It means a victory for the district attorney of the state of New York."

"One by one, the delusions with which he and his alienists started out were proven each by the months of several witnesses to be stubborn facts, that would not be his bidding, except that arrogant, vindictive prosecutor of a sane, acquitted man."

"So baffled was he that when he came to make his closing speech (for argument it was not) he had the appearance of a schoolboy compelled to a piece and not the mature and courageous sophist who dominates the courts in his own judicial district."

"Every prop was taken from under that arrogant, vindictive prosecutor of a sane, acquitted man."

"It is impossible to fathom the workings of the human mind, and so the reason for this totally unexpected and cruel decision of the trial judge must remain a mystery."

"Meanwhile my son, my daughter and I have no alternative but to take up again the burden I had every reason to believe was behind us forever. We, exiled from our two homes, and the regular flow of life, will remain close to the gates, and so help the son and brother to endure an existence which, if perpetual, would be far more than a punishment."

"In God's over-ruling providence in His own good time He will bring the right."

"Mrs. Mary Corbett Thaw."

STATEMENT FROM OSTBY (Continued from page 1.) from his room to that of his father, but he drew a floor plan of the flat where they lived and showed where he would have gone if he had intended to enter his father's room. He does not remember anything about the shooting, whether two shots were fired, or whether his father was shot in the back or the side.

"The police said he was shot on the right side, that's all I know," said Ostby. "I was in the house at the time, he thought, except himself and his mother. His mother had stated that she was going to his aunt's to borrow money to pay the bill for the funeral."

He did not know where his sister and brother were as they had also gone out. Ostby said he had been in the habit of building and working over his mother's wrongs, and that he was quick tempered and had always had difficulty controlling himself when angry. Nothing had occurred immediately preceding the shooting, he stated, and stuck to this statement throughout the examination.

He talked freely about his high school work and his early life and told his standings in high school with pride. He had been exempt from a number of examinations on account of high standing and had never failed in any subject but spelling. He has not been ill recently.

At this point the jury discovered that he had been in the habit of taking advantage of his mother's ignorance. This has been merely an examination to determine your condition. Nothing which we have said will hurt your case."

"I don't see how I could have known it," replied Ostby with some heat. "I told you who you were, I should certainly have kept from saying a word about it."

He said that he would not have drawn the plan of the house and indicated where he had been before and after the shooting. If he had known for whom he was doing it, or if he returned the plan to him. He refused to talk any more seriously on this and was taken back to his cell.

PLUM DAY IN BEVERLY (Continued from page 1.) pose of during his term of office—began at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Fairgrounds. Announcement of the selections may be made within the next day or two.

Through Rider Out. President Taft today appointed Charles O. Crockett as Attorney of the United States marshal for that territory. The retirement of H. F. Daniels, who has served as marshal during the past few years, marks the passing from office of another President Roosevelt rough rider. Daniels was a member of the Rough Rider regiment and had led an active life in the West. His resignation as marshal was announced by the department of justice at Washington.

Because of an attempt in Beverly to make a mystery of the visits of a "mysterious woman in white" to the executive offices, it was announced today that the visitor was Mrs. W. Harry Schmick of Ohio, whose husband, a former bank teller, is serving a term in Leavenworth prison. Mrs. Schmick is seeking a pardon for her husband.

TOMLINSON ON HER MAIDEN TRIP (Continued from page 1.) Capt. George Stevenson, formerly master of the Thesedais, is master of the new boat, The Tomlinson, is 550 feet long and has a capacity of 10,000 tons. Her launching a month ago was an event in the history of the city, and attended by people prominent in shipping all over the lakes. Mrs. G. A. Tomlinson was sponsor.

The Tomlinson is taking a cargo of grain and will leave this afternoon on her first trip down the lakes.

Strike Is Dead Issue. The "Strike Is Dead Issue" has had no effect on the vessel trade as far as securing men. "Every vessel owner that I know has had no trouble in securing men."

Capit. Brown, who was in the lake with him, said he was not in the lake with him, and that he was not in the lake with him.

"The only effect of the strike that I have noticed in Duluth is the port which I am most familiar, is that it was made a pretext for the arrest of hoboes to beat and rob men on the water front, claiming on their arrest that they were union pickets, whether they were or not."

"I don't know what the effect of the strike is, but I don't think it is a very heavy one."

"The season has been characterized by a scarcity of cargo, but this condition is now disappearing. In the busy part of the season a good many owners of big freighters do not want coal cargoes, but this season there has been a scarcity for those who do want them."

For the remainder of the season, however, the coal shipments will be heavy and there will be a demand for tonnage.

"There has been little complaint on eastbound cargoes, although the season has not been exceptionally busy. The outlook is extremely promising, however. I understand that the grain movement will be very heavy, and coupled with the heavy coal movement, for shipping from the head of the lakes should be very heavy from now until the close of navigation."

PICKLING TIME HERE

Cucumbers and Tomatoes Are Now in the Market.

The Berry Season Is Rapidly
Drawing to a Close.

Pickling time is here. The busy housewife of each year, for the first time, is able to pick up "pickers" in various forms, cucumbers, jelly and jam, may now find the wherewithal for her operations in the market at prices that may seem a little high, but are about the best that can be expected.

A few "cukes" and pickling tomatoes arrived during the past week, but they will come in more freely during the coming week and the prices will probably be a little lower. The wholesalers quote hothouse "cukes" at $1 a bushel, garden "cukes" at 65 cents, dills at 90 cents and mediums at $1.10. By the bushel, tomatoes are bringing $2. There are not many of the green tomatoes that go as an ingredient into many pickles, but they will come along next week and take their places on the market.

Next week will probably see the close of peaches in the market. The Washington peach crop is a total failure. The Colorado and Alberta crops are short and prices are high.

California fruits will be the feature of the market during the coming week. Plums, peaches, apricots and California pears are also firm, though prices are high. There are no apples in prospect. Grapes are coming in freely and they are of good quality at reasonable prices.

Berries have not seen their season for this summer. Strawberries have been scratched off the list entirely, and raspberries are scarce. Blackberries are still quite plentiful and blackberries are the feature of the market for the greater part of this month.

Oranges are appearing in greater quantities and the prices remain about the same. Apples and lemons are on the increase.

Eggs weakened during the week and they are now quoted at 24 cents, whereas they were 25 and 26 cents at this time last week.

Green vegetables are selling at reasonable prices and are coming in in greater quantities. Next week, tomatoes will be on the market in greater than the usual quantity and pickling cucumbers will come more freely.

All winter vegetables are firm at the prevailing prices quoted by the wholesalers.

The potato market has struck bottom it is believed, and the price will hold steady for the remainder of the season. Next potatoes are bringing 25 cents and the old potatoes, of which there are a few in the market, are quoted at 20 cents.

Meat prices are about unchanged, with no new developments in sight.

Hay has seen an increase, timothy and upland No. 1 both going up $2 within the last few weeks.

Feed is stationary, a little lower. Shorts are quoted at $24, bran at $23 and oats at 15 cents.

Butter is holding firm at 26 to 30 cents for creamery and 25 to 26 cents for factory. Creamery in tubs is bringing 25 cents.

There is a little lower.

A LITTLE RED SPOT

Novel Experiment by Which It May Be Made to Disappear.

A peculiar feature about posam, the new discovery is that no one is asked to buy it without first sending to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, for an experimental sample and applying same to an affected part of the skin, about the size of a silver dollar. It will clear the spot so treated in twenty-four hours—a remarkable visual demonstration of its power.

While posam has been mentioned principally in connection with the cure of eczema, the most stubborn of skin diseases, it must be remembered that when used for itch, hives, pimples, blotches, acne, itching feet, scaly scalp, chafing of infants and similar minor skin troubles its action is all the more pronounced, results being seen after an overnight application. As only a small quantity of posam is necessary to cure such cases, a special fifty-cent package, usually sufficient, has been placed on sale at the Lyceum Pharmacy and W. A. Abbott's, in Duluth, the A. B. Holmberg Drug company, in Superior, and other leading drug stores throughout the country.

His mind to take his life, and wrote a letter to his wife stating that he had gone to commit suicide. He then went to the nearest park and threw himself into the deepest part of a lake. To his surprise, he did not sink, every time he thrust himself under the water he came to the top again. He swam ashore and walked home.

"He was too fat to sink," a policeman explained to the magistrate.

TWO KILLED IN DUEL ON STREET

Passer-by Is Also Fatally Shot in an Italian Village.

Rome, Aug. 13.—The Latin temperament is ever ready to fly to extremes, and, particularly when jealousy supplants the ethical compass, the result is a tragedy. The village of Genzano, near this city, was a few days ago provided with all the elements of a human melodrama. Evaristo Agnelli was badly wounded by a certain Esmeralda Bernoni, who, however, heant to Arturo Carogoli. Between the Agnelli and Bernoni families there was a long-standing feud, and in this account, which had hitherto only found expression in scolding looks and muttered threats.

A few evenings ago, however, Evaristo Agnelli, boiling with rage under the effects of a new repulse by the stationery, Agnelli and Bernoni, in company with his brother, were passing through the air. The two Bernonis on the one side, and the two Agnelli on the other, separated for a brief moment to get breath, and then fell to again. The fight was brief but decisive. Hardly had the preliminary feints for advantage been exchanged before the Agnelli's knives struck home and the Bernonis fell to the ground mortally wounded. But the battle was not yet over, for a new combatant appeared. The second round was brief but decisive. Hardly had the preliminary feints for advantage been exchanged before the Agnelli's knives struck home and the Bernonis fell to the ground mortally wounded. ## CHINA IS TO HAVE PHONE

Modern American System Is Ordered for Installation in Pekin.

Only 2,000 Instruments of the Ringing Sort
There Now.

New York, Aug. 13.—Add an inch to every shirt tail in China (so some disciples of Walter Ballard down South has figured it) and our Southern States could export 2,500,000 more bales of cotton to the Orient every year. Prophecies about China—but which have to do with telephone installation—were spun out along the same lines yesterday in the offices of the Western Electric company at 463 West street when O. D. Street of the Western Electric told the contract for the installation of a modern American telephone system in Pekin that has just been awarded by the Chinese empire to his company against the bids of English, German, French and other foreign manufacturers.

The commission composed of three Chinese government officials, toured Europe and America about two years ago to look over telephones. The commission agreed with the Western Electric company—who manufacture the Bell Telephone company's equipment—that New York has the best telephone system in existence. A cablegram just received from the Western Electric's Chinese agents, the Armhold-Karberg company of Tientsin, announcing the award from the Chinese government is the result.

The two switchboards that will first be installed in Pekin, one at each end of the city, will cost approximately $150,000.

Great Field Open. "This opening contract," explained Mr. Sweet yesterday, "will call attention to the tremendous field now open to electrical companies throughout the United States for this is but a beginning and the field is open to any other indication of the awakening of the Chinese to the value of modern things."

China really has no telephone system now. For all the 500,000 or more souls in the empire there are about 2,000 telephones. These are all of the old hand ringing, obsolete kind and are installed mainly in the homes of foreigners who use them merely for social intercourse, not for shopping and trade as we do. They couldn't use them New Yorkers do it. They wanted to because each little exchange switchboard with its one telephone and no two exchanges have trunk connections.

Mr. Sweet gave a better notion of the possibilities open to enterprising American manufacturers when he gave a forecast of what will come to pass if China shows an increase of only 1 per cent in the use of telephones in the next twenty years. It has been estimated that the United States keeps up only its present rate of telephone exchange in the world only 1 per cent.

But suppose China's increase during a like period," said Mr. Sweet, "were only a half per cent—China in 1930 will have 400,000 telephones. This with the switchboards and other equipment will mean a Chinese expenditure of $150,000,000."

Everybody Got Busy. When the Chinese telephone commission visited New York and European cities, years ago, everybody got busy. The Western Electric sent one of the company engineers, G. E. Pingree, to Pekin, where he was joined by representatives from Siemens & Halske, the big German concern; the Ericsson people and the English and French bidders.

The death of the Chinese dowager empress and of the emperor delayed negotiations for some time. The empire, however, will go ahead tentatively with the two switchboards and several thousand feet of lead covered aerial and underground cable—most of it underground—and a first installation of 2,500 telephones as a starter.

Later on the government intends to install plants at Tientsin, Canton, Hankow and other big Chinese cities. The switchboards will be copies of the board used in New York and the telephones will be of modern type. It is probable that the "hello" persons will be Chinese girls. The Chinese girls make excellent operators in the Chinatown exchange of San Francisco.

"The Chinese," Mr. Sweet remarked, "are fortunate in starting out with a trunk system of the very latest type. We've had to learn and progress here by experiment and experience, wrecking the old equipment as we went along. The boards we shall install in Pekin will have capacity for 10,000 telephones. The government, of course, will control the service."

Need Not Be Ashamed. "When the Chinese commission visited this country they found that the United States had about 2,000 exchanges each larger than the two we are now placing for them combined, any one of which is larger than the entire of the Pekin exchanges. But they need not be ashamed of the plant they will have in operation very soon over there."

The contract specifies that the equipment must be delivered at Tientsin by Feb. 3, 1910. Consequently it has to be manufactured and sent half way around the world in just six months. The installation will be under the supervision of American engineers, who will remain in Pekin until the Chinese operators have mastered the work.

There seems to be no worry about the short time allowed for the delivery of the equipment. Last fall when the Gutenberg exchange which handles the calls of the busiest section of Paris was destroyed by fire, the French government put a time limit on the contract for new equipment that scared all the European manufacturers. American enterprise jumped in unafraid. A switchboard was made in Hawthorne a suburb of Chicago, in a hurry. Then it was shipped to New York and sent to Paris by the French government in just sixty days from the time work was begun on it in Illinois.

Teeth Saved From Flood. Kansas's Masticators Were Carried Twenty Miles, But Recovered.

Ottawa, Kan., Aug. 12.—Yesterday afternoon, July 7, John Baldwin, a widely known resident of Pomona, here, to a tree in a place called the great Marais des Cygnes flood, and by the narrowest of chances saved his life.

Mr. Baldwin, with two others, had started for the wreck of the Santa Fe train No. 5, which turned over in mid-July. The rescuers were driven away from the right-of-way by the terrific current and Mr. Baldwin despaired of escape. He at last summoned strength sufficient to swim to high ground. In his struggles in the water he lost his false teeth.

A few days ago fishermen on the McCoy place, just west of Ottawa, and some twenty miles by river from Pomona, found a set of false teeth among the wheat. Pomona men who were in the party knew of Mr. Baldwin's loss and submitted the teeth to him. They proved to be his, and he is now wearing the reclaimed set in preference to the new set which he had made to replace his loss.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

HANSON IS LOCKED UP

Bemidji Saloonkeeper Lands in Jail for Ignoring Court's Order.

Failed to Pay Divorced Wife Weekly Alimony as Decreed.

Bemidji, Minn., Aug. 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—That orders of the district court are not to be treated lightly was demonstrated here yesterday and, as a result, Jens Hanson, a local saloonkeeper, is spending ten days in the county jail.

Mrs. Hanson secured a divorce from Hanson a year ago with alimony of $10 per week and custody of the children. She recently filed a petition with Judge C. W. Stanton alleging that Mr. Hanson was failing to pay the weekly payment of the alimony and that he compelled her to come to his saloon for the money, abusing her at these times. She requested that Jens be made to pay the alimony and that she be allowed to have her children.

Judge Stanton issued an order for Hanson to appear on the 9th inst. and show cause why he had not paid the $10 per week. Hanson failed to appear and the judge issued a bench warrant for his arrest.

Hanson was arrested and sentenced to ten days in the county jail and after the ten days to remain there until he had paid the $10 costs and attorneys fees, and he was directed to hereafter pay the weekly $10 every Monday to Mrs. Hanson's attorney.

CUTICURA FREED HIM FROM SKIN-TORMENT

"About seven years ago a small abrasion appeared on my right leg just above my ankle. It irritated me so that I began to scratch it and it began to spread until my leg from my ankle to the knee was one solid scale like a scab. The irritation was always worse at night and would not allow me to sleep, or my wife either, and it was completely undermining my health. I lost fifty pounds in weight and was almost out of my mind with pain and chagrin as no matter where the irritation came, at work, on the street or in the presence of company, I would have to scratch it until I had the blood running down into my shoe. I simply cannot describe my suffering during these seven years. The pain, mortification, loss of sleep, both to myself and wife is simply indescribable on paper and one has to experience it to know what it is.

I tried all kinds of doctors and remedies but I might as well have thrown my money down a sewer. They would dry it up for a little while and fill me with hope only to break out again just as bad if not worse. I had given up hope of ever being cured when I was induced by my wife to give the Cuticura Remedies a trial. After taking the Cuticura Remedies for a little while I began to see a change and after taking several bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, in conjunction with the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, the trouble had entirely disappeared and my leg was as fine as the day I was born. Now after a lapse of six months with no signs of a recurrence, I am perfectly safe in recommending to you my heartfelt thanks for the good the Cuticura Remedies have done for me. I shall always recommend them to my friends. W. H. White, Mgr. Label Dept., Typo, Union No. 2, 312 E. Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 4 and Apr. 13, 1909."

Cuticura Remedies are sold throughout the world. Write to J. C. Cuticura, Boston, Mass., or Mailed Free, Cuticura Book on the Skin.

It is every bit as easy to put a cash-buying profit into your own pocket instead of a credit-buying profit into a grocer's. Understand, we do not blame the credit grocer for charging an interest on the money he loans you from month to month. He is entitled to it for extending credit. The question is—are you the one who is able to pay 25 per cent and more for just a few days' accommodation? This is quite a serious financial matter when your own pocketbook is to be the loser or gainer.

H. H. Phelps Suing to Recover $181.48 on an Old Note.

The original note was for $600, executed in 1901 by Dr. Davis. As security for the note the bank received 50,000 shares of the Parry Sound Mining company's stock, endorsed by E. W. Forbes. The note was not paid when due and no payment has ever been made on it according to the complaint. The bank sold 10,000 of the 50,000 shares for $181.48, and a promissory note of $181.48, shortly after this the bank suspended and no further payments or sales have been made.

NEW RESERVOIR AT WEST DULUTH MUST BE REBUILT

City Must Spend Nearly $9,000 Before It Can Be Used.

The Concrete Bottom Has Crumbled—Dirt Also Washes Into It.

Contractor Lost $15,000 When It Was Built Two Years Ago.

Exceedingly poor workmanship, the use of inferior material, or the necessary turning of water on a concrete bottom before it should have been put to use, makes necessary the laying of an entirely new concrete bottom in the city reservoir at the summit of sixty-fourth avenue west at a cost of between $2,000 and $4,000. In addition, the board of water and light commissioners has decided to throw additional safeguards around the reservoir by building on the north and west sides a concrete roadway with an elevated curb on the reservoir side and a rubble retaining wall on the other side, the roadway and elevated curb forming a gutter to carry away the rain water and prevent it from washing into the reservoir. That additional $4,000 to $5,000 will cost an additional $4,000 to $5,000. New Duluth people became dissatisfied this summer with the quality of water they were getting, and it was apparent on an inspection of the water that it was not as clear and pure as it should be. There was no fresh air in the water, and there was a certain amount of stagnation, and there were substances in it that did not pass through the filter and make good water for drinking.

Bottom Crumbled.

On the reservoir being emptied, it was found that the concrete bottom was crumbling and disintegrated, leaving the water to wash up substances from the clay bottom. What the cause is, cannot be determined.

The reservoir was constructed less than two years ago, P. McDonnell having been the contractor. When the water was turned on, it was found that the bottom was crumbling and disintegrated, leaving the water to wash up substances from the clay bottom. What the cause is, cannot be determined.

Department of Agriculture Issues Summary of Conditions.

Canada Shows Best Standing of Any Country Outside of the States.

Washington, Aug. 14.—With mid-harvest reached in Europe, the department of agriculture today issued a report showing the conditions of the crops in foreign countries. The conditions are the least promising in Central Europe. As to this section, the report says:

Little improvement was permitted last month, because of the necessary turning of water on a concrete bottom before it should have been put to use, makes necessary the laying of an entirely new concrete bottom in the city reservoir at the summit of sixty-fourth avenue west at a cost of between $2,000 and $4,000. In addition, the board of water and light commissioners has decided to throw additional safeguards around the reservoir by building on the north and west sides a concrete roadway with an elevated curb on the reservoir side and a rubble retaining wall on the other side, the roadway and elevated curb forming a gutter to carry away the rain water and prevent it from washing into the reservoir. ## ADDITIONAL SPORTS LOOK LIKE WINNERS

Sox Are Favorites in Race for the League Pennant.

Half of Twenty Remaining Games on Home Grounds.

Duluth has an excellent chance to win the pennant. There are twenty games remaining on the schedule of the team. This is not counting some of the postponed games that may be ordered played. Of the remaining games that the team has on its schedule, one-half of them are at home. The pennant looks as if it belonged to Duluth.

The Sox are going at the present time, it is not unreasonable to suppose, that it will win the great majority of its games on the home grounds. Even the team does not do any better in the remaining games away from home. Winona can hardly be expected to increase its lead on the Sox. The Killbuckites come here for their games, while the Sox do not return to Winona, and they expect to get at least three of four games with Winona here.

The Sox have won the last nine games. Their playing is the best it has been at any time this season. The pitchers are all working well at the present time, and the members of the team are all in first-class condition. The men are full of fight, and the best of all, they all believe that the Sox are away the best team in the league, and that the other teams cannot possibly beat them for the title.

The confidence of the Sox does not take on the form of boastfulness. They simply believe, and their past performances are an honest basis for the belief, that the Sox are the best team in the league. The team is the Minnesota-Wisconsin league and that the flag is coming to Duluth.

Looking at the race in a wholly dispassionate light, it does look as if the Sox will win the pennant. Winona, which looks like the most dangerous team to the Sox, has games at La Crosse, where the Killbuckites close the season, and games away from home with Eau Claire, a very hard team to beat on any grounds, and four with Superior and Duluth. It looks as if Winona will have very hard sledding.

It looks as if La Crosse had shot its bolt. For a while the Outcasts were playing very fast baseball, but of late they seem to have hit the bogeyman. With the two teams that have been pressing the Sox the hardest apparently going back to the Sox getting stronger as the season progresses, it looks as if we are going to win the much coveted title.

FAMOUS DRIVERS ARE ENTERED

Rival Organizations Will Join in Speed Events at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 14.—Four more entries have been received for the automobile races at the motor speedway, Aug. 22-23. Ralph de Palma has entered with his Fiat car, and three more entries were registered yesterday. This raises the total to sixty-five cars that will whirl around the Hoosier five-mile course in pursuit of records and prizes.

Walter Christie arrived last night and swells the ranks of famous drivers here waiting for an opportunity to test their machines on the track. The motorists have the right of way at present, but motor cars will probably begin limbering up Sunday.

This racing event will be the first time the American Automobile association and the Automobile Club of America will unite on common grounds. Leaders in automobile circles from local organizations are in the official ranks.

The list of officials was announced last night and contains the following: Lewis Spear, president; F. B. Stevens, secretary; F. H. Elliott, New York; Walter Baker, Cleveland; Frank Ford, Cleveland; F. B. Hower, Buffalo; Charles Becker, Detroit; F. T. Trego, Chicago; A. E. Hays, Minneapolis; C. R. Root, Chicago; David Beersford, Chicago; George Cox, Terre Haute; and Fred Wagner, New York.

COURTROOM IS CROWDED

Morbidly Curious Flock to Hear the Ostby Examination.

Nearly 400 Are Disappointed When Hearing Is Postponed Until Monday.

Between 300 and 400 curious people, almost all of them men, were appointed this morning when the preliminary hearing of Bjorn Ostby, who is accused of shooting his father, J. G. Ostby, was postponed until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

The preliminary examination was set for 9:30 o'clock, before Judge Cutting of the municipal court, but an adjournment until Monday was decided upon. An hour before the time set for the examination, men began to climb the stairs leading to the courtroom, and before 9 o'clock all the seats were taken.

The crowd continued to increase in size, and when 9:30 came men were jammed from the railing to the doorway, and the crowd extended out into the hall and as far as the head of the stairs. More people continued to arrive, but when they found they could not get even near enough to see inside of the door, because of the congestion, they turned away in disappointment.

Those who had secured positions in the hall, however, retained their places, although they were too far away to hear a word of what was going on in the courtroom, and could not even have seen the prisoner had he been brought up. A few women were on hand, but when they saw the size of the crowd, and learned that they could not secure seats or get inside the room, they went away again.

About fifteen minutes to 10 o'clock Court Officer Peter McDonald announced to those gathered in the room that the examination had been put over till Monday. Four or five men left the room. The others kept their seats, laboring under the impression that the court officer was fooling them, in an effort to clear the courtroom. The crowd lingered around until after 10 o'clock, until it finally became convinced that there was to be no examination.

Even when the examination is held there is scarcely a chance at all that the defense will put young Ostby on the stand. The principal purpose in asking for an examination at all appears to be to give the attorney for the defense an opportunity to find along just what line the police intend to testify, so as to be ready to outline a plan of defense when the trial for murder comes up in district court. There would be nothing to be gained by putting Ostby on the stand in municipal court, and it is optional with the defense whether this is done or not. Chief of Police Troyer and Detectives Irvine and Schutte, who made the arrest of young Ostby, may be the only witnesses at the preliminary examination, aside from Dr. Robert Graham, who conducted a post mortem examination over the remains of the murdered man.

Not in many years has the amount of interest displayed in a local murder case been as great as in the Ostby affair. The staying of the father by the son has been the common topic of conversation on the streets, and a great deal of sympathy is expressed for the youthful murderer.

The trial promises to be somewhat sensational, and if the large crowd in attendance this morning is an indication, it will be a big drawing card for the morbidly curious.

The funeral of John G. Ostby was held this afternoon. There were services at 1:30 from Durkan & Crawford's undertaking rooms, and at 2 o'clock services over the remains were held at the Norwegian Lutheran church, corner of Third street and First avenue east. Interment was at Park Hill cemetery.

SAYS HUSBAND THREATENED HER

Mrs. August Voss Fears Death at Hands of Spouse.

Charging that her husband, August P. Voss, has since the early part of 1908 been in the habit of abusing, threatening and beating her, following her with a shot gun, and threatening to kill her, Mrs. Augusta M. Voss yesterday filed papers commencing an action for divorce.

They have been married since 1895, and had no trouble until last year. Since that time, she alleges, Mr. Voss has been insanely jealous of her without cause, has called her vile names before her children and friends, and has generally damaged her reputation in the neighborhood where they live, besides beating and threatening her. She states that she is in daily fear of death at his hands.

Mr. Voss is 40 years of age, his wife is 37. They have two children aged 13 and 9 years. Five years ago they took up a homestead in section 11-62-19, and Mrs. Voss avers that she worked hard to help clear the land and make a profitable farm of it. She says that she is without money or means of support and asks for a divorce with alimony and the custody of the children.

ACT OF GOD WAS CAUSE

Attorney Says City Cannot Be Held for Explosion Damages.

Gas Leak Was Directly Caused by Floods From Cloudburst.

An "act of God" was responsible for the gas explosion at the corner of First avenue west and Michigan street July 21, according to an opinion given by the board of water and light commissioners by City Attorney C. S. Wilson and his associates. Under the law, no man can be held responsible for damages caused by an act of God. Mr. Wilson holds that the board of water and light commissioners cannot be held for damages caused by the explosion. Several claims for damages were filed with the board of water and light commissioners, and a statement of facts was submitted to Mr. Wilson for an opinion. According to the statement, some time previous to the purchase of the gas plant, the city, the gas mains were laid in Superior street. When the sewer was constructed in First avenue west, it was necessary to take the gas main into the bottom structure of the sewer main. The storm of July taxed all sewers and through that in First avenue west the latter a foot in diameter, were carried by the water. The result was that a hole was worn in the gas main. The burst of water prevented the gas from escaping in great quantities, for a day or so, but when the water subsided, the gas escaped. Mr. Case said all damage was used in an effort to discover the cause of the explosion. The explosion occurred.

In his opinion, Mr. Wilson said that the storm of July 21 was called in law

he says, and the water and light department cannot be held for damages caused by the explosion.

A copy of Mr. Wilson's opinion has been sent to the city fathers, who have made claims against the department.

Eddy of Minneapolis as adjutant general, and of C. R. R. Stowits of Buffalo as quartermaster general. The latter was a reappointment.

HOLDS BACK WATER POWER

Secretary Wilson Withdraws 87,360 Acres Along the Colorado River.

General Land Office Denies Reports That Ballinger Favored Corporations.

Washington, Aug. 14.—What is said to be the largest number of acres of land withdrawn for temporary water power sites in the history of the interior department was made yesterday when Acting Secretary Wilson withdrew 87,360 acres along the Colorado river in Utah. The land in question was withdrawn to prevent "monopolies and give view to produce legislation from congress to preserve the land to the government.

A statement which is significant at this time in view of the discussion which has arisen over water power, was made yesterday as a denial of a story which alleged that in the Roseman, Mont., land district, one Jeremiah Collins, on June 11, filed on 15,848 acres of land valuable for power sites and in the interest of larger power companies.

The statement was made by Acting Assistant Commissioner Schwartz of the general land office, who said: "At no time during the administration of Secretary Ballinger have any power sites been filed upon in Montana."

Made No Such Filings.

The assistant commissioner says that neither Collins nor the Collins Land company has made any such filings at Roseman or elsewhere. Mr. Schwartz says:

The only filing made at Roseman on June 11 was made by President Ramsey of the Riverside Land & Live-stock company, and was an application to amend an original selection made in 1898, aggregating a total area of 15,848 acres. The newspaper correspondent, by omitting the decimal mark showing the 68 of an acre, converted the 158 acres into 15,848. This 158 acre covers two small springs in an arid country, and is intended by the livestock company to acquire a place to water sheep. Ramsey is not in the water business, but is a banker in Helena and a stockman.

The only water power sites on the water sheds of the Missouri river not now under the control of the government, under Secretary Ballinger's order of suspension, are sites which have been in private ownership for several years and two additional sites which are improved and developed to run the street cars and lighting of Helena and Butte and the mines in Butte. These are in the possession of the Helena Power & Light company, and the Capital Improvement company, one having a dam eighty-five feet high and the other a dam 126 feet in height across the main Missouri river.

Their rights, however, are mere re-vested easements, and these permits are approved jointly by the department of the interior and the forest service in the years 1907 and 1908, the application for the Helena Power & Light company, being upon appeal from the action of the general land office in rejecting the application for a permit to erect the dam.

"As to Ramsey's application on June 11 for 158.68 acres, was rejected by the local land office and the rejection sustained in this office for the double reason that it was within railroad limits and stands withdrawn for reclamation purposes."

Cholera Infantum Cured.

"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely, writes J. F. Dempsey of Dempsey, Mo. I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her, one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store and Mrs. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely. For sale by all druggists."

Washington, Aug. 14.—There is $20,000,000 involved in pending suits to recover land to the government, and 141 special agents last year and 332 now are investigating alleged land frauds, says the annual report of the general land office in referring to field work for the last fiscal year.

There were 755,241 acres of unlawfully forced lands restored to the government. Uncle Sam netted $430,096 in cash for coal and timber land trespassing and fines in criminal proceedings regarding lands. ## ROUND-UP MEN IN CASTRO PLOT

Venezuelans Already Have Made Several Arrests and Found Documents.

Washington, Aug. 14.—More arrests are expected in Venezuela as a result of Castro's attempting to regain power by a revolution. The arrest and imprisonment of a German named Hauer, charged with alleged complicity in the revolutionary schemes of Gen. Castro, is the subject of a report which the state department says that Hauer, who knew Castro before the latter became president and had been living abroad for the last three years, returned to Venezuela early in July. It was known that he had seen Castro in Santander, Spain. It is declared that when Hauer was arrested, damaging documents were found on him, including a secret cipher code for use in connection with Castro. Several other Venezuelans have been arrested in connection with this affair and other arrests are to follow.

Dauss and Grimes Engage in a Great Pitching Duel.

Yesterday's game was the kind that makes you sigh with relief when it is over. We won by the narrow score of 2 to 1, but at several stages of the eleven inning contest it looked as if the Sox and the lowly men from the German settlement of La Crosse would snatch the third game from us. With Winona taking an occasional double header, the prospect was not pleasant.

It was young Mister Brown who came to the rescue in the last of the eleven. With Chief O'Brien at second, and one hand down, the kid hit the ball into right field for two runs, bringing the Sox to the winning post.

Credit must be given to Paul Grimes, of old Northern League fame, for pitching one of the heaviest games in the season on the local lot. Mr. Grimes doesn't look like a local boy, but he is an interesting personality. He is kind of a "big" fellow, with a booming voice, but it might be noticed yesterday that John Paul Grimes never once showed any signs of "wind" when "where the latter" said, and as a consequence, the Sox were scattered.

The men from the Gums' Peersless town got to from Man Dauss for eight hits. However, they were not able to capitalize when Capt. Safford was situated around the circuit of the bases, and the visitors, having their hands full of George, but with bases on balls and once missed, filled the bases in the tenth and at several stages had the Sox winning silent contemplation.

The Sox went out in order in the first. In the second, they were scattered on an infield hit, but did not get a third. In the third, when Taylor went out from Gregory to Tom Letcher, in the third inning, the Sox were again scattered.

After Taylor and Dauss had been retired, Letcher went to the plate and scored our first run. After Brown was down, McCrone drew a base, he started down the path toward second and Roy Klein kindly threw him the second base, letting the McCrone person slide to third. Klein scored the man.

During the second, with a running distraction, with a whistling two-base hit, Klein tried to come all the way home, but he was scattered by a throw from E. Kline, Schirmer and Klein.

In the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth the Sox went out in order. In the ninth, Klein got his second hit, and the Sox were again retired in order. In the tenth, the Sox were again retired in order.

In the eleventh, we scored. Neelson was the first batter up and was hit by the ball. Darby attempted to sacrifice the runner, but his offering to Grimes being pegged to Schirmer in the third, it was then that the gods of fate smiled at us. Grimes heaved to first to catch the ball, and in the fourth, he was scattered, and in the fifth, the Sox were again retired in order.

Again in the sixth, the Sox were again retired in order. In the seventh, a hit and a pass left two on the bases when three were down.

In the eighth, the Sox were again retired in order. In the ninth, the Sox were again retired in order. In the tenth, the Sox were again retired in order.

It was in the eighth that the Sox were again retired in order. In the ninth, the Sox were again retired in order. In the tenth, the Sox were again retired in order.

It was in the eighth that the Sox were again retired in order. In the ninth, the Sox were again retired in order. In the tenth, the Sox were again retired in order.

In order, in the tenth three men were left on the paths when the Sox were retired. Klein striking out with the bases loaded. In the eleventh, after two were down, Malley hit for two, but Letcher popped a little one to Baron Mueller.

The Outcasts will make their last appearance of the season this afternoon. The game will be called at 2:30 so that the Saffordites may get back home on schedule time. The boys of La Crosse have been very good to us, and we hope to see them again.

ably as fast as the force available to push the work. This railroad will be built in the Miami and Inspiration mines or at least four miles which are now being explored. The mine which is the most extensive is the Gibson Copper, the Black anker, the Inspiration and the Miami. The Inspiration Warrior is shipping approximately 150 tons of copper ore daily. The Inspiration percentage of copper shown by the smelter returns is from 18 to 22. The Gibson mine is shipping about 100 tons of ore of high grade ore to the smelter each day. This runs about 30 percent in copper.

The Miami and Inspiration mines, which are the largest in the world, are bodies awaiting only means of the Glen Valley extension. The Glen Valley extension, by the Glen Valley Globe & Northern Railroad, will be built in the Inspiration district about four miles northeast of Globe will be built. The Inspiration force is through work on the Miami line. It is generally expected that the Inspiration mine will be finished by Jan. 1. The great Inspiration mine, which is the Arizona Commercial Copper company will thus be afforded access to the Inspiration mine. This will probably mean the beginning of the Inspiration mine. The Inspiration Development work will also be greatly advanced in many other mines of the Inspiration district. The Inspiration Iron Cap of the National Mining house, thoroughly equipped in every way, is now in operation. The smelter of the Arizona Commercial begins to run.

The Inspiration Hill mining region, in probability, the Superior & Boston mine will be the largest. The Inspiration large quantities of ore, will ship to the Inspiration mine. The Inspiration properties that are producing a varying amount of rich material will undoubtedly be able to save freight rates by shipping to the Arizona Commercial.

Five Producing Mines Now on Iron Clad Hill---Second Discovery of Rich Ore in the Vindicator---Elkton's Annual Statement.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Aug. 14.—With the Arapahoe mine, which has just joined the shipping list, Ironhead Hill now has five producing mines—Arapahoe, Ironhead, John Jay, Cripple Creek and Bamon. The Arapahoe, owned by the J. H. Thompson Mining Company of Denver, Edwin Gaylord, lessee, has entered a rich vein in the Cripple Creek district. Driven from the Jerry Johnson main drift, the ore is of the best quality. A ton of quartz, is expected to ship at $50 a ton. The strike was made at 550 feet depth. The vein is 100 feet wide. The Cripple Creek and Ironhead Mining company declared its second dividend, one-half cent a share, on July 27. The first disbursement was paid about a year ago.

The Ironhead district, which ore has been made in the Victor mine, this time, is the most successful. A ton of quartz of $20 to $250 a ton ore has been opened. The shoot was encountered at 100 feet. The ore is of the best quality and exploitation is hindered by the small size of the veins. However, has been measured to be six feet from wall to wall.

The Cripple Creek mine has produced about 100,000 tons into thousands of dollars a ton. The ore shoot reported was the richest ever made in No. 3 vein has been carried below the 200-foot level. The ore is of the best quality. The company has issued a share dividend of $22,000, was issued July 26. The company has also declared a dividend of $2,500.

T. Everett, the largest individual shareholder and a director of the company, was present at the meeting. The first installment will be sufficient to liquidate the project and place enough money in the treasury to carry on the exploratory work for a year. Diamond drilling in the horizon of the Baltic lode will be completed by the end of the year.

No stock will be sold for the present, but of the 60,000 new shares it is proposed to issue 20,000 shares to the old shareholders. The balance of $400,000 thus realized will be used as a working fund to explore the company's 230-acre tract of mineral lands, which lie between the Adventure and Lake Copper company properties, is believed and undoubtedly carried out. The new beds recently located on those properties. The Aztec has been idle since 1906, in which year it was abandoned. The work on the Evergreen bed without encouraging results. Diamond drilling

North Lake has completed the so-called No. 4 drill hole and the drill has been lowered to the bottom of the site in the approximate horizon or what presumably is the horizon of the Lake beds, but the diamond drilling is now being driven. The No. 4 hole was put down toward the eastward of the No. 3 hole, and the company has promise aside from a copper bearing bed tapped soon after diamond drilling was completed. The hole was lowered to be the Lake beds. The new drill hole designated as No. 5 is located so that a further exposure itically all that has been secured in the operations, the balance of the ground is badly shattered. An improvement noted south at the sixteenth level, though but a few feet from the surface. In this new ground, indications are such that a run of copper ground similar to that developed on the sixteenth level can reasonably be expected.

Rumor That Cole-Ryan Interests Will Take Control of Utah Property---This Means That Heinze Will Sell His Interests.

The very latest story about the activities of the Cole-Ryan syndicate in extending its sphere of copper influence in Utah is that the syndicate is to be taken out of the control of F. A. Heinze, according to a dispatch which carries the following:

"We have it from good sources that the Heinze syndicate is to be taken out of the control of the Cole-Ryan interests, taking over the Ohio Copper company, and the price which will permit of substantial profits to the syndicate is being offered to Heinze."

It is further paid by the syndicate averaged $8.37 per share. The new interests apparently have a command, as evidenced by the paying of $300,000 of the shares of the Ohio Copper company to Heinze stock. This latter stock has been paid in full, and the syndicate has a commitment of $150,000 due next October and comparatively small amounts due in the future. It is thought they did not take kindly to this move and are now endeavoring to get out.

The Ohio Copper company, under the management of the syndicate, is a body of low-grade ore and the Cole-Ryan interests are purchasing the high-grade ore from a strong foothold in Utah in conjunction with their big smelter, now building nine miles from Magnolia. The syndicate through the international Smelter company, which would probably come through the international Smelter company, is endeavoring to get the market to afford to pay substantially above the market price for the ore.

It is further wired our Salt Lake City correspondent to see Directors of the Ohio Copper company. We ask for the report. He replies:

"The directors of the Ohio Copper company and Thomas Weaver claim that they know nothing about the deal in Ohio Copper by which the syndicate is to be taken out of the control of Director Weaver says that he understands the deal, but that he does not know whether the syndicate is to get the control, but that the men in the syndicate are endeavoring to get the control of the company."

Both men have been before the Cole-Ryan syndicate, seeking for the Ohio, the Mascot tunnel and smelter, and the syndicate is endeavoring to get all of which are controlled by Heinze. The Cole-Ryan syndicate is endeavoring to get the control of the syndicate for the Tintic smelter and the Knight mines. The representative of the syndicate is endeavoring to get the syndicate to leave within a few days for the East. The syndicate is endeavoring to get the syndicate to leave within a short time."

Extensive Placer Mining Work in Vicinity of Rapid City Expected--Two Hundred Men Building Home-stake Company's Big Power Plant.

Deadwood, S. D., Aug. 14.—Further investigation of the possibilities in the placer mining industry in Pennington county have recently been made by representatives of Eastern capital. Extensive work in the vicinity of the town of Rapid, where the principal activity is expected. The ground examined was in the Rapid and Rapid and Castle creeks, where in the late '70s and through the 80s many individuals and a few companies worked at a profit. Placer mining along these creeks has been done with the dredge, and some of the sand bars have yielded immense harvests of gold. It is toward these that the present investigations are directed. The placer mining has been considerable in the past, and has been done, and a Colorado outfit is now commencing work near the Hyman.

The management of the Reliance Gold Mining company, which is located in the district near Portland, is preparing to develop the vertical ore bodies.

The property was being developed just prior to the building of the mill, but the mill was not completed, and would require a long haul the flat formations only were developed. The building of a new dam to replace the one destroyed by fire, and which would be completed before fall, so that the mill could be put in operation before that time, would be necessary. The output of the mine will be of the order of 100 tons a day, and a daily output of from 150 to 200 tons is expected.

In a circular letter to stockholders the present owners of the Hidden Gem Fortune Gold Mining company's property, which is located in the Rapid and Castle creeks, show how the reorganization of the company that has attracted considerable interest in the past few years may lead to successful operation and profit. It is proposed to reorganize the company with a capital stock of $500,000, the old stock to be taken at 75 cents per share of $1 each, or just one-tenth of the capitalization. The new shares of stock in the new company at 75 cents a share the bondholders of the old company will receive. The properties here, propose to take over their interests complete, free of charge, and the new shares of stock are taken by the old stockholders at the 75-cent rate. The Hidden Gem Fortune Gold Mining company, the bondholders, of whom the Continental Trust company and the Continental Trust company are principals in Denver, are the principals through

REMARKABLE FLASHLIGHT PHOTOGRAPH OF THE VENETIAN CARNAVAL AT THE BOAT CLUB

The above copyrighted picture taken on carnival night at the Duluth Boat club by Photographer Hugh McKenzie, is said to be the largest flashlight photograph ever taken.

The picture was taken from the high-div platform erected on the outer edge of the tennis court for the use of a professional swimmer who performed here last summer. Each year for the past three years the boat club has had a Venetian festisome during the summer, and each year many have wished that a picture might be taken of the beautiful sight.

There have been many attempts, but the above picture is the first one that turned out in any way successful.

TELLS OF THE COMING RACE

Greater Delicacy of Nerve and Finer Brain Its Attributes.

Mrs. Annie Besant Gives Interesting Address to Big Audience.

The coming race of mankind will be marked with a greater delicacy of nerve, a fineness of brain and greater powers of communion with the spiritual world, according to Mrs. Annie Besant, president of the Theosophical Society of Duluth, a little band of earnest students who made it possible for Duluth to have a visit from the great leader.

Mrs. Besant spoke briefly of the belief of the theosophists in the occult, but her sermon was in fact, did not dwell in detail upon the theories of theosophy that are little known to the common mind. The Duluth people who heard Mrs. Besant last evening are indebted to the Theosophical Society of Duluth, a little band of earnest students who made it possible for Duluth to have a visit from the great leader.

"BLACKBERRY BOB": THE STORY OF A PLUCKY BOY.

BY WILLIAM WALLACE, JR.

YES, Bobby, my dear child, I should love to give you the money to buy for yourself a pair of sidewalk skates, but you know how close-run Papa is for money just now. Business has been very bad for the past year, and your Papa said just yesterday that we'd have to cut down expenses as much as possible till the fall brought better times.

So spoke Mrs. Jackson to her 12-year-old son, Bobby. The little fellow had just expressed a wish for a new pair of sidewalk skates, for his old ones were worn out. And after his mother had explained why it was impossible for her to give him the money to gratify his wish, Bobby did not go off and pout or cry, as he was wont to do when he was told that he could not have what he wanted. He went to his room and took out the big grassy lawn to play with his ball and kite. "Well," he said to himself, "if Papa can't afford to give me spending money as he used to, I must make the best of it—help to cut down expenses, as Mamma says."

But just then along came Bobby's chum, Fred Vane, carrying a fishing pole and line over his shoulder. "Say, Bob," he called out, "want to go to the creek with me? It's a fine day for fish."

"Yep, I'll go with you," said Bobby. "But don't care much about fishing. I'd rather wonder about on the river, hunting caves and hidden spots of interest. Wait till I ask Mamma's permission to go." And Bobby ran into the house to his mother. Of course, she was glad to allow Bobby the afternoon in the country with Fred, telling him to carry along a "snake stick," as there were occasional snakes to be found in the weeds and rank grass on the river banks.

Bobby armed himself with a huge stick and set out with Fred, forgetting all about the desired sidewalk skates.

Reaching that spot on the river banks where fishing was considered best, Fred found a good flat stone upon which to sit and fish. "Ah," he said to Bobby, "this is a dandy layout. But I'll get a fine string of fish for supper."

"Well, I'll wander up and down the creek a while," said Bobby. "I may find something worth while, and I may find only a snake. But here's to your luck, Fred." And Bobby waved his stick at his comrade and then strolled off, soon being lost to Fred's view round a curve in the river.

"And look to you, pal," called back Fred. Then the fisherman was lost to the world, for the fish began to bite pretty frequently, and his luck was proving fine.

After an hour had passed by Fred heard his comrade approaching through the long grass, and looking up, saw that he was carrying his big snake stick in his hands, while over his shoulder was the "snake-stick" with a round, fat white bundle depending from it. Bobby's face was red from heat and brilliant sunshine, but a very happy expression covered it.

"Say, Fred," he said, approaching the fisherman, "ran right into the first snake! Found a great blackberry patch—a wild one, you know—about half a mile off the creek. Looked 'em up. And he held down the beautiful hat to Fred for inspection. "Ain't they beauts, though?" declared "Well, I should say they are," declared

Fred, putting down his fishing-rod to help himself to a good supply of the great, ripe, luscious berries which filled Bobby's hat. "And what's in that bundle on the stick?"

"It's my handkerchief full of berries," said Bobby. "And I'm going to take all these fine fellows home to Mamma. She's been buying blackberries, you know, from the grocer's, and they're fearfully high. That evening Bobby's mother was greatly pleased when her little son brought her about three quarts of fine wild blackberries. "Why, son, I was just going to phone to our grocer to send me two boxes of blackberries for supper. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are coming for tea, and I thought they would enjoy some nice berries. But these are much more delicious than the cultivated fruit. There's always such a fine flavor to wild berries. And what a lot of them, too." Then an idea came to Mrs. Jackson. "Say, Bobby, fetch to me my pins from the sideboard in the dining-room," she added, as Bobby finished pouring the berries into a pan on the kitchen table.

To Bobby's surprise, his mother took from her purse 30 cents and handed it to him. "For the berries," she said. "I would have paid the grocer 10 cents a quart for berries, and you deserve the same price."

"But," demurred Bobby, "I don't want to take money from you, Mamma. I'm only too glad to help you cut down expenses, you know."

"But there's no necessity of our cutting down expenses in the matter of fruit, dear," his mother smiled to cry. "Take the change and put it in your bank. And if you can gather more berries I shall pay you for them. You may get your new sidewalk skates in this way."

"Oh—oh—oh!" ejaculated Bobby. "So I may! Say, Mamma, suppose I go and gather all the berries I can find and sell them to you, you understand. I'll give you all the berries we can eat for supper each day, but I'll sell to outsiders, you see."

Bobby's mother kissed him and declared he had the right heart in his breast, and said that he should give her two quarts of berries each day—providing he gathered many more quarts to sell.

The next morning Bobby was up and away to the blackberry patch before his household was astir. He took two big baskets on his arms and his snake-stick over his shoulder, but he found no use for the latter, though he decided it was just as well to "be prepared for war in time of peace." Before the sun marked the hour of noon he had filled his baskets and was on the road leading for home. His mother met him with an encouraging smile. "Breakfast is waiting for you, sonny," she said, relieving him of the baskets. "Oh, what a fine lot of berries. But tell me, are there no other persons picking from the same patch? It's surprising all this fine fruit should want for pickers."

"There hasn't been a soul there the two days that I have been there," explained Bobby. "But I'm awfully afraid others will be there tomorrow, for there are bushes of berries just in the right condition for picking. I never saw such a fine berry patch. Anyway, I'm going to make my while the sun shines. I'll eat a bite and go back and refill my baskets. And I'll go again tomorrow. Oh, Mamma, I'll have those sidewalk skates yet!" And Bobby laughed gaily.

Hurriedly swallowing a bite of breakfast, which his fond mother had prepared for him, and hot for him, on seeing him coming over the country road, Bobby took his baskets and returned to the blackberry patch. That evening he and his mother measured his stock of berries. "Oh, that's a good name for me, Mamma," laughed Bobby. "Blackberry Bob!"

"Ah, that's a good name for me, Mamma," laughed Bobby. "Blackberry Bob!"

street," said Bobby. "I'll take two baskets at a time and a quart measure, and I'll sell the berries for 10 cents a quart." Mrs. Jackson did not oppose Bobby's plan and let him take his baskets on his arms and "go forth to sell." An hour later Bobby returned with empty baskets, a pocket full of dimes and nickels. "I'm going to peddle out the other two baskets of berries before going to bed tonight," he said, all excitement. "For I've taken an order from Mrs. Blackberry Bob," said Bobby's father when he was taken into the secret for the first time. "He'll make his way in the world all right."

"Yes, for now I can skate through life. Papa, which means that my road will be smooth," And Bobby skipped and whistled about the house, the happiest boy you ever saw, for he felt that he had learned how to provide himself with certain things he wanted, as well as being capable of helping his parents, if the need might be to do so.

And rushing through the house like a young whirlwind, Bobby got the remaining two baskets of fruit and hurried off down the street with them. He sold them to various residents in the neighborhood, and proudly returned home with another pocketful of small coins.

"Ah, Mamma," he cried, full of anticipation, "maybe I'll have too much money to buy sidewalk skates with. Maybe I'll buy a pony!"

"I hope you may, dear," smiled his mother. "And now my little blackberry Bob must get to bed and rest."

"Ah, that's a good name for me, Mamma," laughed Bobby. "Blackberry Bob!"

birds in America. THERE are 5,000,000 caged birds in the United States. The ordinary house pet, the canary, will cost 25 cents a year, which costs approximately $1.25 per bird each year. This would give an average outlay of $7,500,000 each year by the American people for the feed alone. The exporting of canary birds to the United States from the Iliac Mountain district during the year 1908 amounted in value to $39,855, against $130,554 in the year before.

"Looker!" he held down the beautiful hat to Fred for inspection. "Ain't they beauts, though?"

Sociable to the Last

ONCE there was a well-to-do Irishman who found himself about to pass away. His name was Maloney. He sent for his old friend O'Connor to come and write out his will. Everything was in readiness and the dying man began to dictate:

"Put down 50 pounds for masses up at the church for the repose of my soul. Put down 200 pounds for the Little Sisters of the Poor. Put down 200 pounds for the Cork Orphan Asylum. Put down 100 pounds for my brother Pat. He don't deserve it, but it's all the same, for I can't carry it with me."

"That's right, friend Maloney," said O'Connor, scratching away with pen and ink on the sheet of paper. "What next?"

"I think that's all, O'Connor," said the dying man, faintly. "Count it up and see. You've got the figures, and the amount of me worldly possessions."

O'Connor ran up the figures of the bequests and found 10 pounds remaining. "Ah, put that down for yourself and the others to spend at me funeral," dictated Maloney, a look of anticipation coming over his face.

O'Connor held his pen in check for a minute as if uncertain, then asked: "Shall I say to spend it going to the funeral, Maloney, or coming away from it?"

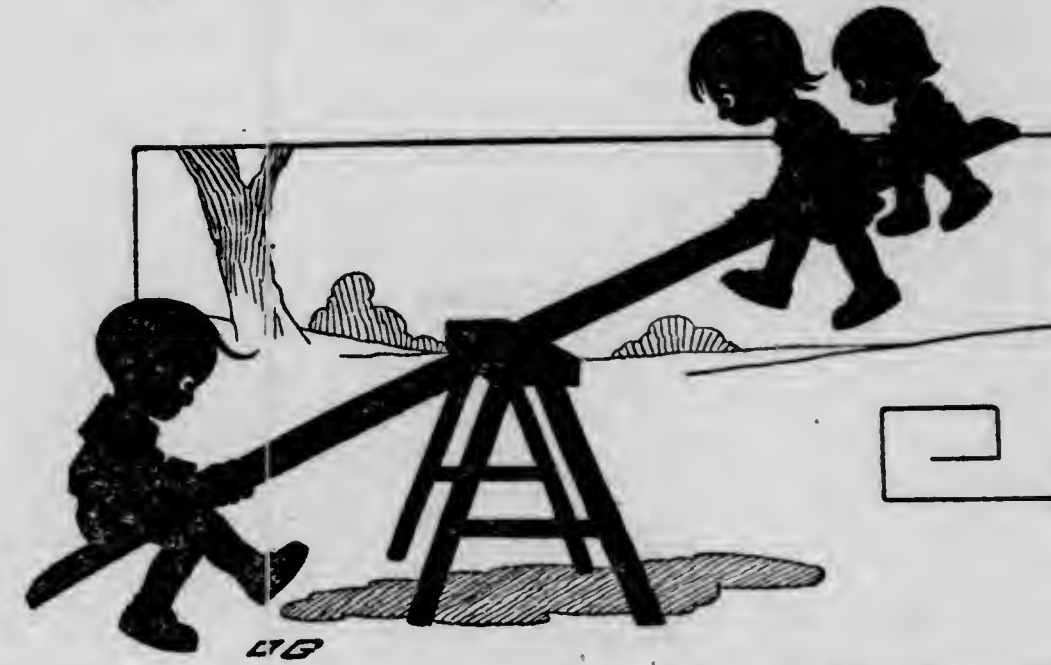

Maloney meditated a bit, then with a wan smile said: "Spend it going to the funeral, O'Connor, for then I'll be wid gez."

THE FAIRY SHIP. By Maud Walker.

BURTON SMITH had just got a new rowboat, and to say that he was proud of it would be expressing it mildly. Burton was a high-school boy, and loved his outdoor sports during the summer vacation. So he had prevailed upon his father to buy the rowboat for him.

As the Smith family spent their summers in the country on a farm, through whose broad acres flowed a deep and splendid river, Burton had fine opportunity to practice with the oars for hours every day. And with him always went his little 10-year-old brother Jack, and Jack was often allowed to use one pair of oars, thinking it was due to his strength that the boat sped through the water so swiftly. And Burton, humoring his young brother, let him continue to think so.

One lazy afternoon Burton accompanied his mother and eldest sister to town, leaving the boat tied up at a little cove a short distance from the house. "We'll have our row on my return, Burt," he said to Jack, who then pointed when told that Burton was to spend the afternoon from home. He knew there would be no boating when Burton was absent, for often when he had asked Burton to allow him to handle the oars alone the big brother would shake his head vigorously, saying: "Nope, Burt; you're a fine oarsman. I'll admit, but you're not yet big enough to take White Wings on the river alone."

So Jack sat under a big spreading tree on the lawn, disconsolate. He would rather row White Wings down the river than eat ice-cream soda, which is saying a good deal. And he knew that his mother and sister would keep Burton away all the afternoon, and on his return at night it would be too late to go rowing. "Well, that's just my luck," said Jack. But just as Jack bewailed his bad luck the gate leading to the big road in front of the house opened and into the yard came Billy and Daisy Baker, neighbor children and playmates of Jack's. Billy was a year older than

Jack, and Daisy was a year younger. "Hello, Billy and Daisy," cried Jack. "Come across the lawn to meet my visitors. 'Gee, I'm glad you've come! Mamma, Burt and May have gone to town, leaving me and Rosie alone—except for the cook and the gardener.'"

"Where's Rosie?" asked Daisy, removing her big hat and tossing it on the lawn.

"Oh, she's making doll rags in her room," said Jack. "But I'll call her."

In response to Jack's call Rosie came running to welcome the little callers. She was a year younger than Daisy; was a fine chum at school and her very best friend in the country.

"Say," said Billy, "we came over to get a ride in Burt's boat. Say, she's a fine one, isn't she? Just skims the water like a bird."

"Yes, her name's White Wings," informed Jack. "And she sure is like a bird. You've seen how I and Burt can handle her by, haven't you? We pass your house going down the river."

"Yes, and I wondered if I might handle a pair of the oars for a little while," said Billy. "I'm dead crazy to learn to row."

"Sure," agreed Jack. "But we have to wait till Burt is here to go with us, you know."

"Why," asked Billy, "you seem to handle the oars as well as Burton does."

"Yes, and I wonder if I might handle a pair of the oars for a little while," said Billy. "I'm dead crazy to learn to row."

"Sure," agreed Jack. "But we have to wait till Burt is here to go with us, you know."

"Why," asked Billy, "you seem to handle the oars as well as Burton does."

course, the little girls declared they wouldn't so much as speak about a whisper and wouldn't move a muscle if allowed to go for a ride in White Wings. So off the four youngsters set, going to the little cove where the boat was moored. Daisy and Rosie were put in the boat before it was untied; then, while Jack held the rope, Billy took his place on one of the rowers' seats, standing on the boat with the oars while Jack got in. Jack got pretty wet in doing so, but the boat began to leave the shore the moment she was untied.

"Ah, now we're all right," said Jack, taking up one pair of oars. Then he felt to making long sweeps with them, getting the boat into the middle of the stream. He also instructed Billy in the use of the oars, and together the two took the boat along pretty lively, or they imagined that they did. But the fact is, the current of the river carried them along, and all they had to do was to dabble with the oars, occasionally to guide it right in the middle of the river.

After some time they went round a curve in the river and the boat ran ashore on a sand bar, which was in the center of the stream. Always in rowing in that part of the river Burton had gone round the bar, but in spite of his efforts, Jack could not manage the boat, for the current, driving as it did at this point, took the small craft in an opposite direction to the one Jack was trying to row. Billy was rowing as hard as he could, but rowing the wrong way.

"Oh, but I love to land on an island!" cried Daisy. "Yes," declared Jack. "Let's go ashore and find some Indian graves or hidden treasure."

Jack, not wishing it to be known that he did not land the boat there purposely, said: "Sure, we'll go ashore. The boat is safe. Half of her is on dry land. We'll just drop the oars into the bottom and get out."

Soon the four little folk were wandering about the sand bar, which was fully a quarter of a mile in length. No thought of accident to White Wings entered their minds. When they had tired of walking about they returned to the spot where they had left their boat. To their horror the boat was gone. They could see it drifting down stream, carried on and on by a huge bank of driftwood. Evidently this same floating mass of driftwood had struck against the boat while passing it and had dragged it into the edge of the sand bar.

To say that Jack was almost frantic would only be telling the truth. He had brought out Burt's boat—had caused it to be lost. He had brought out his sister and friends and through his foolishness had them marooned on an island which

Game of "CAT and MICE"

A jolly game which may be participated in either out of doors or in the house is that called "Cat and Mice," and is played in the following manner: If five children are to engage in the sport, one of them must play the cat, while the remaining four represent the mice. If the game is played out of doors the yard must have certain spots designated as "mouse holes." These "mouse holes" may be marked by stones, sticks stuck into the ground, or by chairs, and should be placed at regular distances about a circle or square of, say 20 feet across, or larger if the space permits. Where there are but four mice they form a square, but if there are six or more mice they may form a circle, the mice holes being some 10 feet apart. The cat is in the center of the square or circle, and the mice are to be seen.

The mice take their places behind the objects representing the holes, thus pretending to be out of sight of the cat, who lurks in the center. The game begins by one or more mice creeping out of hiding, going into the center of the space to find food. Of course a time to come forth is chosen while the cat's eyes are watching an opposite hole. The cat listens and must turn quickly and pursue one of the mice that is away from his hole. If the mouse is caught before he gets into the hole again he must exchange places with the cat, allowing the cat to become the mouse and he becoming the cat.

If Puss is sly she'll pretend not to hear the mice that creep behind her till she knows they are a long way from their holes, then her chance of catching one is as good as if she is next of foot. And on the other hand, if Mouse is cautious she'll have the fun of teasing old Puss by leading her on and on, but keeping just out of her reach.

All the mice may come out of their holes at the same time (they feel free to do so), but no mouse may enter the hole of another mouse, even though closely pursued.

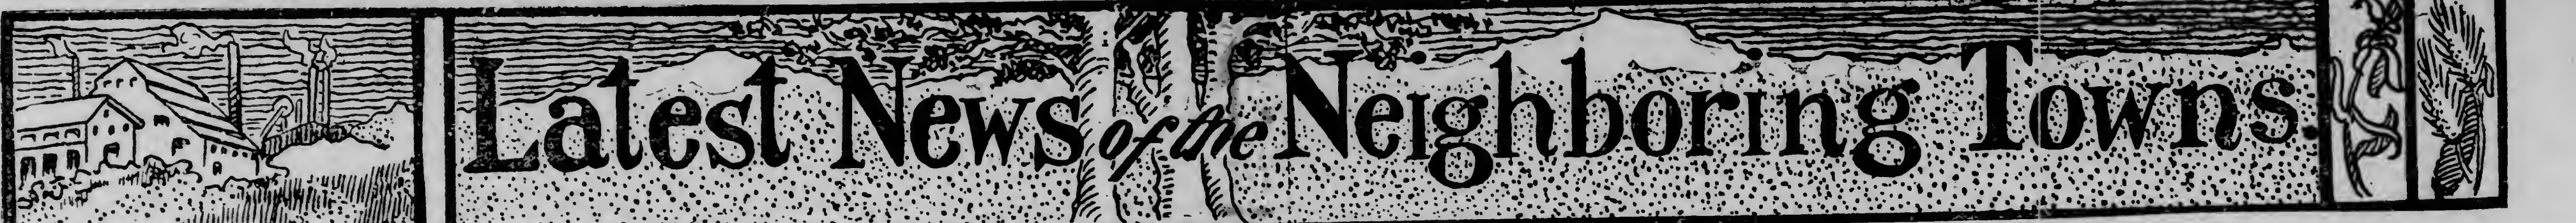

To their horror, the boat was gone; they could see it drifting down stream.

DEMAND FOR RESIDENCE LOTS CONTINUES STRONG

Real Estate Market Has Little Activity, But Much Promise —Loans for Investment Are in Demand—Flat Building Construction Proves Attractive to Many People.

Low-priced residence lots continue to be the feature in the real estate market. There is good inquiry for lots in the main part of the city as well as in the suburbs, and the indications are that a well-formed building boom will soon be noticeable. Architects report that the orders for residences costing from $4,000 to $10,000 are coming in freely and every indication is that the "Build Your Own Home" bug is stinging many.

The second week in August did not come up to the first week in point of activity, as far as the actual closing of sales is concerned. Perhaps a greater number of deals are in the air, however. Not one real estate man along Superior street will say that the outlook is anything but promising. While there is inquiry there is hope in the real estate market, and there certainly is inquiry and more. Earliest money is being deposited in a great many cases and though the deals are comparatively small, they all contribute to the general tone of prospective promise. A very noticeable factor in the market at the present is the scarcity of good property on the market, and that fact bears fully as much responsibility for the dullness at this time, as the ordinary summer inactivity does. It is almost impossible to please more than five buyers with the offerings. Owners of Duluth property cannot but become imbued with the optimism that is all around them, and they are holding their property closely for higher prices and better things. Lots which could be obtained at a fair price six months ago, are not on the market at all now. The purchaser of residence property must look to the suburbs for the site for his home or must be willing to pay a high price in the central part of the city.

The real estate man reports that there is a demand for loans on improved city property. Though the demand would be to the contrary, a demand for loans is a mark of prosperity. People want to invest; they need ready money for investment and they are not afraid under the circumstances to pledge their holdings that they may expand. Loans on Duluth property are quickly secured, for there is much money for such investments.

The letting of the contract for the new fifteen-story Algonquin building on the south side of Superior street, just west of Third avenue west was an important building development of the week. Laquist & Hiseley, who secured the contract, will begin next week to raise the two-story building now on the site, and the construction of the skyscraper will begin as soon as that work is completed. The contract calls for its completion by May 1, 1910, so that next year, Duluth will have one of the finest office buildings in the Northwest.

Residence and apartment house plans are occupying the attention of most of the architects of the city. The apartment house is becoming a favorite investment with Duluth people and it is a paying one. The demand for flats is always great and the returns are large on comparatively small investments. People are willing to pay high rentals for the greater convenience of the modern flat, and all over the city buildings for the accommodation of two, four and six families are being erected.

Houses and flats for rent are in demand, but there are few desirable ones to be had. May 1 most of the most desirable locations were secured on lease so that the Sept. 1 movers are having trouble finding suitable residences. There is a demand for acreage in the vicinity of Lakewood and Woodland, and some big deals will be closed with in the next few weeks. Acreage is

MILLER IS HOME AGAIN

Congressman Returns and Gives His Opinion of the Tariff Bill.

Nothing to Say Regarding the Land Office Ap- pointments.

Congressman Clarence B. Miller returned to Duluth this morning after a short vacation following the strenuous session of the last congress. He stated that he ate all he could, tried to get fat, and tried to forget about some of the things he has been thinking of for the things he has been thinking of for the past few months. Mr. Miller is looking in splendid health and says tariff bill, as it stands today, is a revision downward, but he also thinks that the bill is not as it ought to be. His belief on that question is shown by the fact that he voted against the passage of the bill. He believes that the bill does not give the Middle West what it is entitled to in the tariff laws.

"Out here we produce an immense amount of raw material and use a great amount of manufactured articles," said the congressman this morning. "The tariff measure lets down the protection on a great variety of raw materials. For that reason the great Middle West is opposed to the measure."

Taking the present bill, schedule for schedule, and comparing it with the Dingley tariff bill, Mr. Miller is of the opinion that the bill presented is really upwardward.

And the division was

But Mr. Miller puts much of the blame on the shoulders of the Democrats. Here is what he said on this point:

"There is not a single schedule that has not been lowered, but what would have been lowered if the Democrats had voted for a revision downward. The Democrats voted that all the Republicans on these measures, to make a lower schedule impossible."

Like Governor John A. Johnson, Mr. Miller believes that the great issue of the day is the tariff. He is convinced that a struggle between the East and the West, but he includes more sections of the country in his statement. Mr. Miller believes that it will be both ends against the middle; that the East

Mr. Miller believes that the East and the Pacific coast country are very well stated with the tariff bill, but that the bill was not to be taken up, moreover, that the schedules of the bill militate against the interests of this section of the country.

As to the work of congress, the Eighth district representative said that the closing sessions of both houses were hard, unceasing, and grinding work. The weather was of a torrid nature, "the kind that you can reach out and get a chunk of," as he said. He said that everybody was worn out when the adjournment was announced.

Mr. Miller was asked about the failure of Speaker Cannon to appoint him.

Mr. Miller states that there is a belief that Uncle Joe will not be re-elected speaker of the next house. The

The desert camp is to help toward the better appreciation of the postscript. In the bustle and roar of everyday life it is hard to concentrate at hence the projected journey in search of the peace of the desert. But even as present arrangements go for a dozen or so of poetic people will withdraw themselves from the haunts of man on the approach of autumn and, burdened with books of verse, will make out for the mountains, lying somewhere back of Mokodero.

But already there has appeared a little rift within the lute. The opinion of Robert Hichens—who is an authority on the subject—casts doubt on the suitability of that particular spot for the leading of the peaceful and poetic life. His answer was a little

The question of the commissariat has caused some trouble. The body of even the most lofty and poetical spirit must needs be nourished, and a diet of dates is but poor thing on which to subsist. So the army and navy stores will have instructions to forward weekly hampers filled with the noblest substitutes to netcar and amir, breast that the two lieutenants may be able to face "the desert camp of the Poetic Recital society, somewhere at the back of Mogador."

protection and the tariff, is coming to be a struggle between the East and the West, but he includes more sections of the country in his statement. Mr. Miller believes that it will be the Eastern states that will be the most benefited by the tariff, and that the Eastern coast or the states of the Atlantic coast and the states of the Pacific slope will be aligned against the interests of the Middle West. For he says that there will be a tariff on the Pacific coast pronounced stater patterns.

a loud nature, in the kind that you can reach out and get a chunk of, as Mr. Miller put it, and everybody was worn out by the afternoon and he announced.

Mr. Miller was asked about the failure of Speaker Cannon to appoint him a member of the rivers and harbors committee. He believes that Speaker Joe took occasion, as he has taken in other cases, to discriminate against those who have opposed him.

Mr. Miller states that he would like to see Speaker Joe will not be re-elected speaker of the next house. The choice of the members for the next speaker seems to lie between Tawney, Minnesota and Walter Smith of Iowa.

WHEAT STILL ADVANCING

Rumors of Rains and Black Rust Make Bears Nervous.

Duluth Board of Trade, Aug. 14.—Wheat went up again today in all American markets, the advance of yesterday on the covering of shorts continuing. The news from the harvest fields was not such as to give traders an intimation that a permanent advance was in prospect, but the shorts are fearful of the unsettled weather and are content to take profits on the present basis.

There are heavy rains in certain parts of the Northwest and some reports of black rust, but they are not such as to be alarming, and most of them come from unimpeachable sources, so that their effect on the market is confined to the effect on the shorts.
